We Broke It In

In three years, Brooke Point has established a well respected reputation, a reputation that says we are competitive both academically and athletically. The community challenged us to show who we are, what we do, and what we accomplish, so...

Our first year, we settled in and made Brooke Point feel like home. We moved boxes and equipment, and we watched the gym and theater rise from the dirt. The first year ended with a sense of pride in our new school. Between then and now we did much more than move in; we set goals and fulfilled them. After accepting the school colors and celebrating the opening year, we began the accreditation process with a self-study program. By the end of the third year, the mission statement hung throughout the school.

Now, as the original freshman class graduates, we reflect back over the first four years and see just how far we have come, establishing many traditions and achieving many firsts. In fact, the varsity football team was the first football team in Stafford to claim a regional title and move on to state competition!

What makes this graduating class and school community special, though, is not only the fact that we have been here from the beginning, but that we have overcome tragedy together. A shadow of grief was cast upon the community as it coped with two tragic automobile accidents and three additional deaths. Yet, in spite of these losses, we created a supportive environment, helping one another and becoming more involved in the rehabilitation of accident survivor, junior Molly Gill. And our caring community has rallied again around one of our own, Talsey Cunningham.

Through the first four years, we displayed our pride and sense of community. We accomplished our goals, developing a mission statement and claiming victories both academic and athletic. More and more, the school became ours. As the class of '97 graduates, it leaves behind established tradition. The seniors, here when it all began, have indeed seen it through.

DETERMINED TO WIN! Senior quarterback Branden Campbell (11) eludes Culpeper defenders on route to a six yard gain and an eventual victory. The win against Culpeper allowed the Hawks to claim the District title and move on to Regional play. As one, the team was determined to reach the State tournament, a goal which, under Branden's leadership, they saw through.

RIDE OF THEIR LIVES!

TAKE A LOOK AT THIS! Seniors Jessica Bernard and Amy Vassallo dress in their best red, black, and white outfits on Homecoming Day. This day was filled with a pep rally, parade, and football game all devoted to the theme "Gone Hollywood."

YOU GO 'GUARD! Senior Allison Ashford and Sophomore Chris Lowery cheer for the color guard after a band competition held at North Stafford in September. The Color Guard placed first place overall for the first time in school history.

RELAXIN' AT THE RALLY. Seniors Matt Khovry and Amy Cline share a smile atop the bleachers during a pep rally. Amy was amused more by the crowd's antics than by the people on the floor. Students' traditional pep rally antics included throwing toilet paper, stealing other classes' signs, and climbing on shoulders for a better view.

KICKIN' IT! Senior Whitney Williams and junior Jana Musgrove perform the bass funk routine at a pep rally. According to Whitney and Jana, this dance was extremely hard "because it was three dances combined into one and you had to keep going from one side of the gym to the other."

See Who We Are

FRIENDS BEFORE CLASS! Junior Jonathan Gillman stands on the senior class side of the pep rally with his friend senior Greg Odum. Students were required to sit in one of the four sections of the gym which were divided into separate classes. Still, Jonathan decided that being with his friends was important enough to "bend the rules" a bit.

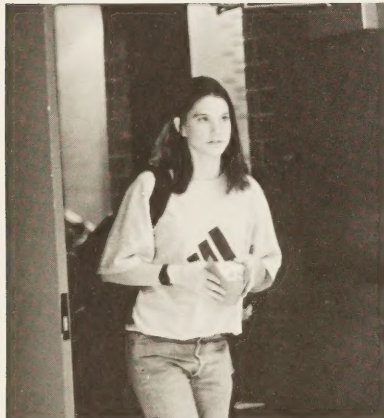

On September 7, 1993 Brooke Point High School opened its doors to the first 945 students it would SEE. This was our beginning as we figured out just HOW things worked and who we were about to become. On September 6, 1996 the school opened for the first class to be here all four years, followed not FAR behind by the Class of 2000, ready to lead Brooke Point into the next century. From the October 4th Homecoming and the June 12th graduation to the first ever Powder Puff football games, WE'VE kept old traditions and built new ones. We've watched the football team COME home with the regional trophy, a feat never before achieved in Stafford County. Under the team's banner, "As One," we've united a school filled with spirit. Who are we? The Black-Hawks from Brooke Point High.

Top Ten Reasons to Come Back to School

10. Although they're wonderful people, you're sick of seeing your family every single day, all of the time.
9. After being grounded for the entire summer, you're dying to have a social life again.
8. You can't wait to "meet" all of the new freshmen.
7. Those nutritious school lunches.
6. You want to take a swim in the famous pool on the roof.
5. Members of the faculty are your best friends.
4. You really want to get up way early in the morning again.
3. You look forward to getting beat up by those big, bad seniors.
2. So you can start counting down the number of days until next summer.
1. You're sick of watching t.v. every single day and gosh darn it, you want to learn!

ON TO THE NEST. As buses filed their way in and out of Black-Hawk territory on the first day, the weather changed from gray and breezy to sunny and 72 degrees. Like Wilson from channel 7's Home Improvement might philosophize, the attitude around the school changed from "gray," or skeptical to "sunny," or cheery.

I'M A SENIOR NOW... With a parking pass application in hand, Senior Ann Waller leaves the theater after the first senior class meeting. Senior passes were black to distinguish them from the red passes of underclassmen.

I DON'T WANT THAT CLASS. Counselor Mrs. Jane Keady makes changes on Junior Nikki Petit's schedule. According to assistant principal, Mr. Henry Johnson, few 'last minute' schedule changes were made.

Did you know?

Due to an increase in enrollment, students without chairs stood against the walls for the first few days of class.

Meeting, Greeting, and Getting

BACK INTO THE GROOVE

"What a drag!"

"I like to decorate my room to inspire the minds of my students."

"We're getting tested on the Student Code of what?!"

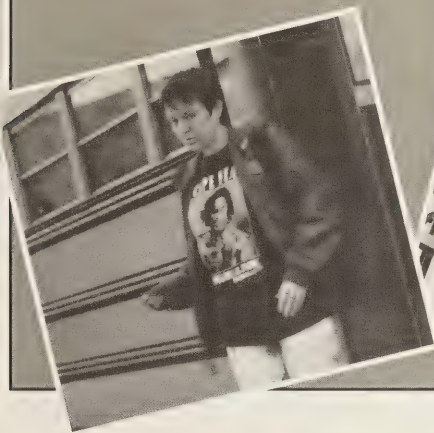

"I love the first week of school because we get our first secret pal gifts which is the best part of tennis!"

-Amy Cline, junior

-Mr. Chris Ryder, chorus teacher.

-Erik Waugh, freshman

-Lisa Oaks, senior

What happened...

TUESDAY, Sept. 3, 1996.

It was cloudy and drizzling when the buses pulled into the bus loop for the first time.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 4, 1996.

Students were required to take a test on the Student Code of Conduct booklet during first period.

THURSDAY, Sept. 5, 1996.

The first senior assembly took place during second period in the theater.

FRIDAY, Sept. 6, 1996.

School was cancelled due to flooding caused by Hurricane Fran.

MISSED YOU! Junior Sarah Sirry and Senior Sarah Angel embrace in the Hawk's Nest after school. Neither girl had seen the other all summer, and this was the first time they had met at school. The Commons area was a "common" place to meet friends you hadn't seen for a while.

THE GREAT OUTDOORS

From shark fishing to amusement parks, summer
Exploring
 camps to foreign countries, students and faculty the wild side went everywhere in the summer of '96. Every of summer
 moment of the 80 day summer counted.

NOW YOU SEE IT, NOW YOU DON'T.
 Junior Sam Raymond grabs the inner tube before senior Bryan McCabe can jump into it at sophomore Jason Grant's house. Bryan and Sam said "horseplaying in the pool helped avoid summer boredom."

HELP ME SOMEBODY, HELP ME! Mr. Ben Forbes crawls out of the Grand Canyon while on vacation in Arizona. Mr. Forbes said he had been "pushed into the Canyon by lemmings."

WHAT OCEAN? Sophomores Andrew Bond, Nick Bartick, Jeff Pradham, Clay Campbell, Dan Heller, Michael Glumac, Billy Pogi and Kenny Vincent explore the Great Sand Dunes National Park in Colorado before they set up camp. Afterwards, The group went white-water rafting through the Royal Gorge on the Arkansas River.

GIDDY UP!! Sophomore Heidi Baitis rides her Anglo-Arabian, Scottish Luck at Quantico Stables in an August trial. Heidi spent long hours at the stables riding her horses.

CATCHING SOME RAYS.

Top Ten Things to Do at King's Dominion

10. Spit off the top of the Eiffel Tower.
9. Spend your life savings on cotton candy and funnel cakes.
8. Enjoy the thrill of your life on the Scooby Doo.
7. Go around the Lazy River 20 times to see that good-looking life guard again.
6. Wait in line for three hours to get the first seat on The Outer Limits.
5. Look for graffiti about people you know during the wait for the White Water Cannon.
4. Meet Huckleberry Hound and those Star Trek guys.
3. See how much change you can collect standing under the Berzerker.
2. Hey! You're a SuperStar, now sing, sing, sing!
1. Find lost kids and tell them Mommy isn't coming back.

Did you know?

Seventy-six percent of the students went to the beach at least once.

What did you do this summer?

- ☼ "I blew up a frog on the fourth of July." Jason Neal, sophomore
- ☼ "I loved watching the girls' gymnastics in the Olympics." Kurt Toth, sophomore
- ☼ "I almost fell off of a ferry in the Mediterranean Sea." Nia Gianulis, junior
- ☼ "I fell off of my roof when I was cleaning my gutters." Jerry Anderson, senior
- ☼ "This summer I became addicted to Dr. Pepper." Patrick McGiff, senior
- ☼ "I watched TV and ate Cocoa Puffs." Casey Bonds, sophomore
- ☼ "I hammered my summer away building a house." Travis Reed, sophomore

RING AROUND THE ROSEY! Sophomores Alaina Bowling, Diana Miller, Jennifer Rich, and junior Melissa Crismon do a dance that they learned at cheerleading camp in August at the University of Maryland, Baltimore County. The JV team learned a lot of new chants, cheers and stunts at camp to bring back to school and said that they had a lot of fun as well.

Did you know?

There are 390 student parking spaces in the parking lot.

SPEEDING AHEAD

ON ALL FOUR WHEELS

ROLLIN' WITH THE HOMIES. Sophomore Jason Neal rides with his brother senior Joey Neal. Joey dropped Jason off at the Aquia Movies and then went out for the night.

GO SPEED RACER! Senior Frank Mirando cruises down the street to show off his Suzuki motorcycle. Very few students rode a motorcycle because of the extra driving class and test you had to take to legally drive one.

IN A SEA OF CARS. Students who drive to school have to fight a parking lot full of other drivers to find a good spot and be inside the building before the 7:45 tardy bell. The seniors, who had black permits, had a better chance of being on time than the underclassmen with red permits, because the underclassmen had to park further away in the Overflow Lot.

STREET SMART?

To avoid getting a speeding ticket when you get pulled over, which of these would be the best answer?

- A) But officer I have a very weak bladder and my doctor ordered me to get to the restroom in whatever way possible!
- B) While I was obeying all traffic laws, I sort of confused the gas pedal with the brake pedal.
- C) I bet you had to go about 85 to catch up to me, so now who's the one speeding?
- D) I am dyslexic so whenever I see "25 m.p.h.," I read "52 m.p.h."

If you chose any of the above, may the staff suggest you enjoy your ticket?!

HANDYMAN WITH A CAN. Senior Chris Cooney finds his car has a flat tire in the parking lot after school. Fortunately, a parent who was passing saved the day with a can of tire-inflating foam!

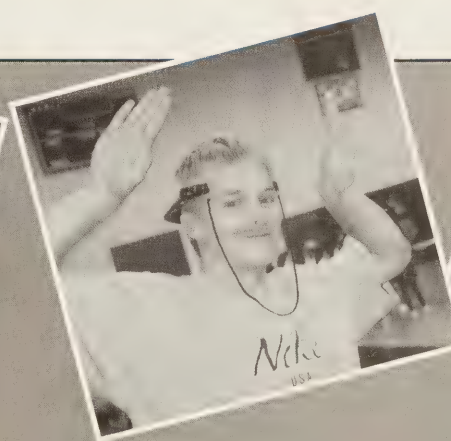

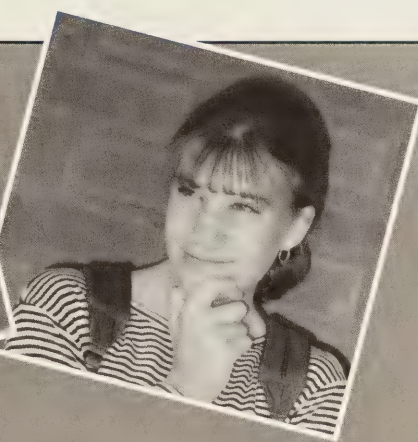

ROW, ROW, ROW YOUR TRUCK. Senior Phillip Males drives down a flooded Delaware Drive in Aquia Harbor to take home junior Catherine Theimer. The Great Flood of '96 which happened on Friday, September 6, kept us out of school, giving us a three day weekend.

DREAM CARS

If You Had "Findage," You Might Drive A....

1. Dodge Viper... for the serious speedster.
2. Jeep Wrangler... has that going to the beach look.
3. Jeep Cherokee... calling all backwoods yuppies.
4. Ford Mustang... put American sports cars back on the map.
5. Chevrolet Camaro... Chevy's mustang, this horse kicks!

What are you parking in the lot?

"I did drive a white Mazda truck until a tree from my yard fell on it."

"I sometimes drive a station-wagon --with my mom."

"My dream car is a 1995 Black Dodge Ram, Dually, Extra-Cab Pick-up."

"I drive a 1984 Klunker I mean Toyota Pickup Truck, a little one, red, 5-speed, long-bed, with chrome wheels."

-Doug White, junior

-Katie Smith, sophomore

-Andy Franklin, junior

-Paul Myers, junior

Did You Know?

The Homecoming King and Queen are twins!

LOOKOUT CHRIS! Before leaving for the dance, junior Erika Karr pins former Black-Hawk Chris Roy with his boutonniere. Chris was a member of the first graduating class.

OH, YOU LOOK BEAUTIFUL! Freshman Michelle Kalka primps in the bathroom in between dances. "Dancing so hard really messes up your hair!" said Michelle. The commons area bathroom became a beauty salon for the ladies at Homecoming.

"PUCKER UP, BOYS!" Seniors Maurice Jerralde, and Brent Fournier show the love to classmate Ryan Pangret. This was a kiss of good luck, for the big homecoming game against Spotsylvania.

DANCING THE NIGHT AWAY.... Sophomores Kelli Snider and Alaina Bowling 'boogie down' along with others at the dance. Kelli said, "Dancing with my friends added to the fun of the dance."

What will you always remember about Homecoming?

👉 "When my date stabbed my chest while putting on my boutonniere."

Jesse Jordan, senior

👉 "I was sitting in my friend's car before the dance, and I accidentally shut the door on her dog's tail."

Melissa Crismon, junior

Rosie Rabon, junior

👉 "Jesse [Jordan] ate out of the big salad bowl at the Olive Garden--with his hands!"

Kelli Snider, sophomore

AAH, AREN'T THEY CUTE! Underneath a parachute sky, in the gym decorated to look like a Hollywood set, junior Sam Raymond holds his date sophomore Tara Peterson. The couple danced to the romantic ballad "I Can Love You Like That" by Boyz II Men.

THAT SPECIAL MOMENT, AT THE DANCE!

In honor of Homecoming week, junior Mark Bowman offered the following poem:

I'll never forget that Friday night--
The bunch of us was quite a sight!
Playing against the Spotsy Knights,
The BP Blaw-Hawks were ready to fight.

We all met at Joe's for a tailgate,
And I was just a little bit late.
We painted Black-Hawks on our chests,
No doubt Brooke Point is the best.

Everyone dressed in a red clown wig,
Then we all jumped into our rigs,
Cruised to school in an eight car train-- surely we would get some fame.

Chanting "BP" as we walked in the gate,
No way we were gonna' be late.
Took our seats at the top of the stands;
Certainly we're the most spirited fans.

The weather outside was pretty cold,
But that just made us all the more bold.
Laying in the stands were all of our tee's,
And we were freezing-- 38 degrees!

The cheerleaders weren't as loud as our group
And newspaper reporters were getting the scoop.
Running back and forth trying to start the wave,
We were all hyped for this rave.

Our voices were sore by the half-time show,
But all we needed was some hot cocoa
We watched the classes' floats go 'round,
And our King and Queen were crowned

The game starts again and is going kind of bad,
Which makes all of us somewhat mad.
Without winning our homecoming game,
Things at the dance just won't be the same.

But we could care less if the team loses or wins,
We just enjoy hanging out with our friends.
In the end it was our first loss of the season;
We went home without voices, all of us freezing.

M-I-C-K-E-Y M-O-U-S-E!!!
Junior Brooke King dresses as the famous Disney character to show school spirit for "Animation Day." Other themes of the week included: Western, Adventure, Comedy, and Spirit Days.

Royal Roll Call

King and Queen

Maurice and Miranda Jerrals

Princes and Princesses

Paul Myers    Jen Snyder
Willie Bookert    Erin Cahill
Kevin Roy    Holly Hargreaves

Lords and Ladies

Jason Neal    Shaina Settle
Bud Hoover    Kristin Bowman

Counts and Countesses

Pat McDaniel    Sarah Miller
Matt Miller    Ashleigh Langhorne

SHOUT IT OUT, GIRLS!

SPIRIT STICK FRENZY! Sophomore Shawn Dayton peeks out from behind junior Monica Rosebrook as she and juniors Emily Brown, Pat Carroll, and Christina Reed cheer for the class of '98. While Shawn wasn't technically supposed to sit with the juniors, he managed to snag a seat with the golf team, whose inspired raving at this first pep rally of the year helped the juniors capture the spirit stick.

Top Ten Cool Events at the Pep Rally

10. All rise (sort of) for the Class of 1997.
9. Simon says, "Find Mr. Reynolds another job."
8. Don't Touch the Bird!
7. Dancing Lessons with Joner Hall and the BPHS Dance Team.
6. Swoon over that Homecoming Court.
5. Crowd Surf!
4. Step Team-- enough said!
3. Hey Mrs. Tillery, wave that spirit stick!
2. Get psyched- That golf team is FIRED UP!
1. Alma Mater sing-a-long with the Marching Black-hawks.

So what'd you think about the pep rallies?

"Pep rallies rock — they give you an excuse to get out of class, scream your head off, and streak across the gym."

-Jeremy Ellis, senior

"I was super nervous about my stunt because I did not want them to drop me in front of all those people."

-Megan Wagner, freshman

"Pep rallies are fun because they give us youngsta's a chance to pep up our school spirit."

-Justin Musgrove, senior

"Pep rallies tear it up because they get the whole school together and you get to dress funny."

GONE WILD!

Pep ralliers on the loose

Did you know?
The gym seats 1,800
people.

"LET ME HEAR YOU CLAP YOUR HANDS!" Freshman Melissa McConnell leads a cheer at the first pep rally. The acoustics in the gym made it easy for the audience to hear the cheerleaders.

"YOUR TURN!" Principal Kerry Tillery waves the spirit stick in front of the junior class to see if they were the most enthusiastic. The spirit stick is awarded to the class which makes the most noise during the stick's three trips around the gym.

Uncommon Knowledge

- Pep rallies are fun because you: a. show school spirit. b. get out of class. c. aren't embarrassed by dressing funny. d. relish the idea of throwing toilet paper. e. like that band, Kaine.
- The most spirited performances were given by: a. The Dance Team. b. The Cheerleaders. c. The Step Team. d. The Marching Black-Hawks. e. that band, Kaine.
- The most noise was made by: a. the Class of 2000. b. the Class of 1999. c. the Class of 1998. d. the Class of 1997. e. that band, Kaine.
- The best "Simon Says" player(s) was/were the: a. teachers. b. students. c. mascot. d. guy who refused to sit down. e. that band, Kaine.

STEPPIN' STRONG. The Step Team gives their first performance at the Homecoming pep rally. The steppers debut received a roar of approval from the student body. Step team member Christal Lundy later said that they were "surprised, and pleased, by the audience's support."

SHAKE THAT THING! Senior Scott Rooney dances to the pep rally rhythms. The Marching Black-Hawks and a student band, Kaine, provided more than enough music for dancing students.

Q: And your most embarrassing moment EVER at lunch was...?

A: "The time I was swishing jello around in my mouth, and when I swallowed, someone made me laugh, and orange, liquified gelatin came out of my nose."

Mike Frank, junior

A: "When my friend, Carrie Larson, made a chicken nugget slingshot, and I got hit in the eye."

Monica Rosebrook, junior

A: "When I went to shake my milk, I had forgotten that I had already opened it, and it spilled all over me in front of everyone."

Amber Groves, sophomore

A: "When my friend dumped coke all over my white pants, I looked like I had peed on myself!!"

Milissa Griffis, junior

PSSST! In the lunch line, Sophomore Wendy Cox whispers to freshman Evette Johnson as sophomore Daniel Davis and freshman Melinda Edozie listen in. Wendy and Evette checked out the cafeteria crowd, and Melinda wanted to "catch up on the latest gossip."

DIG IN. Juniors Heather Morris and Ginger Carpenter share fries and conversation during third lunch. Heather and Ginger commonly shared their lunches as well as the latest gossip.

"HAVE SOME FRIES." Senior Laura Downs helps herself to a fry from senior Jen Bagby's tray. Laura and Jen, who have had the same lunch for the last four years, eat lunch together everyday, sometimes enjoying the weather on Senior Court.

Did you know?

The price of lunch went up $.10, from $1.25 to $1.35.

Out of 150 students surveyed, 53%

Where do you

replied that they sit in commons 2, and

sit at lunch?

47% said they sit in commons 1.

"THAT'S A GOOD ONE!"

Seniors Joe Willis and Katie Robinson crack up over a new joke. Joe and Katie found the Senior Courtyard privilege "enjoyable, [having created] many memorable moments."

SNEAK ATTACK. Sophomore Aaron Towne steals a fry from freshman Jeff Sinclair. While normally a punishable offense, Jeff let Aaron slide since they have been friends for two years, ever since they met playing soccer..

IT'S GOSSIP TIME

Eat and Run

Match the students on the left with their favorite foods on the right! Answers below.

Dwanetta Jackson, senior

Chicken Sandwich

Fries

Pizza

ANSWERS

Nikki-pizza:
Laura-fries:
Dwanetta-chicken sandwich

CHA-CHING. Junior Jason Elliot hands over his lunch card to cashier Mrs. Patricia Hart. Having to wait in often over-long lunch lines caused some concern for Jason, who sometimes didn't have time to eat, but the electronic lunch card system, where students kept a balance on a credit card, made buying lunch, at least, a little faster.

6:30 a.m. TIME TO GET UP. Holding on to her stuffed piggy, sophomore Jess Constantine catches a few extra winks of sleep before getting up for school. Jess enjoyed opening her eyes to the smiling Brad Pitt poster on her ceiling.

6:50 a.m. ZESTFULLY CLEAN. Freshman Amanda Meadows makes sure her towel is still hanging before she turns on the hot water to take a shower. Amanda used Sarah Michael Shower Bath Gel and Outrageous Shampoo.

7:00 a.m. CHOWING DOWN. Not having enough time to sit, freshman Diane Thelmer scoops a spoonful of Kellogg's Raisin Bran at the kitchen counter. After getting ready, grabbing a bite to eat was the last thing Diane did before leaving for school.

Morning Routines, two steps at a time

Helpful Hints for Doing Homework Before School

1. Don't drive and do homework at the same time.
2. Ride with someone smart.
3. Bring a study notebook to write on--windshields and the backs of seats don't count!
4. Watch out for bumps: sudden stops + orange juice = big mess.
5. Don't use pen--scribbly pencil marks are easier to erase.
6. Pray for long red lights.
7. Don't open the windows on I-95, or your homework will be spread all across Stafford County.

READY TO GO.

Having packed shorts and a t-shirt for basketball practice, sophomore Kevin Battle heads out the door. With his bookbag on and jacket zipped, Kevin waited patiently in the cool morning air for his ride to school.

Ten best, or worst, reasons for being late

10. My pop tart got stuck in the toaster.
9. The traffic light got stuck on red.
8. We ran out of hot water and I had to take a shower at my neighbor's house.
7. I heard on the radio that there was a three and a half hour delay.
6. My bus driver stopped at McDonalds.
5. The road was flooded and my brakes got wet, so I had to stop and dry them off.
4. I was chillin' with Epps in the parking lot.
3. I couldn't find my P.E. book.
2. My dog ate my alarm clock.
1. Why should it matter? I always sleep through first period.

DOWNY FRESH.

Cafeteria manager Mrs. Gail Mitchell folds towels in the kitchen before school. Besides preparing food and doing paperwork, folding towels was an all day routine for cafeteria employees.

WHAT A FACE.

Sophomore Eric Miele steps on to school grounds after another exciting bus ride. Freshman and those who couldn't drive rode the bus, using the extra time to do homework sleep, or catch up with friends.

PRESENT AND ACCOUNTED FOR.

Early bird Spanish teacher Mr. Mark Rice signs in at 6:58 a.m. in the front office. Other teachers regularly arriving early included Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Brown, both English teachers.

MORNING DRILL

I Know, I Know, It's Off to School I Go...

Did you know?

Students spend 30 seconds on average brushing their teeth, but dentists recommend a minute.

CAFFEINE ADDICT? Senior Brady Meyer, a self-proclaimed "coffee fiend," has been drinking four cups of coffee a day since eighth grade, joining the large group of Americans for whom coffee is a daily ritual.

HEY MACARENA! Senior Melissa Brown, Mr. Scott Moore, Sophomore Jincey Pace and Senior Jessica Morrow groove to the hit dance tune "The Macarena" by Del Rio at the Stafford County Volunteer Fire Dept. The Macarena inspired a national dance craze and won an Emmy as "song of the Year."

"Go-Go is my favorite type of music. People are just now starting to get into it, but it's been around for years."

-Marshelle Harris, junior

The Music Never Dies...

Whatever fashions and fads come and go, you can always rely on music to be there. Although new music is always being created, there are some favorites that live on. Here are the most popular tunes of today:

*Alternative *Country
*R&B *Go-Go

*Punk
*Rap *Ska
*Soft Rock

"Rage Against the Machine is the best band since Louis Armstrong sang 'Jeepers Creepers'"

- Jasin Kania, junior

COOL STUFF

The Latest Music and Styles Hit the Scene

Survey says... 125 students were asked if they thought these issues were still hot topics, whether they were "in" or "out." Here's the results:

TOMMY BOY! Freshman Hart Hall sports his Tommy Hilfiger shirt during lunch. "Tommy" was Hart's favorite brand.

BRAND-NAME STRIPES. Sophomore Nik Zeigler wears a striped Adidas jacket, keeping comfortable while looking over the Student Code of Conduct in the Main Office.

Who's Saying What?

"Phat @"	.....	Jamie Irick, junior
"Good Deal"	.....	Jason Lester, senior
"That's Primo!"	.....	Marshelle Hams, junior
"Whatever"	.....	Tripp Reed, senior
"Anyways"	.....	Harry Sanger, freshman

MR. SMOOTH: Junior David Bustamante shows his style, wearing a fashionable band keychain over his Structure sweater. Keychains around the neck became fashionable in the fall.

COLD FEET? Senior Kristin Richardson puts on a pair of slippers that she brought to the Homecoming Dance. Girls were asked to take their shoes off to prevent scraping the gym floor, and Kristin brought the slippers to avoid going barefoot.

Did you know?

In the 1960's, a "Lip Clap" was what we today call a kiss.

GET ON DOWN. At Sam Goody's music store, senior Duron Chavis jams to the "Set It Off" soundtrack. As he put it, "I just can't get enough of this disc!"

TEACHERS VS. STUDENTS

Q: What was the killer hangout?

A: T- "At my mom's lake house"- Mrs. Kitty Hughes

S- "Anywhere but home"-John Brewster, senior

Q: How much dough did you dish out and who dishes it?

A: T- An average of $50 --

"Depends on how much my bride spends"-Mr. Dave Arthur

S- An average of $20 --

"Not a penny, my parents pay"- Carrie Larson, junior

Q: How much time did you spend primping in front of the mirror?

A: T- "It takes my wife about an hour to get ready, but it takes me about 2 minutes"-Mr. Aaron Spence

S- "It takes me about 30 minutes or until my boyfriend pulls up honking the horn."
-Amber Bowling, senior

GUESS WHAT I HEARD! While waiting for a show to start at the movie theater, seniors Amy Mitchell and Alison Searce exchange dating secrets. While their dates were elsewhere, the two took the opportunity for some girl-talk.

CAN I HAVE SOME? Junior Tanya Wood and sophomore Sarah Holden decorate each other with ice cream at Jessica Morrow's 17th birthday party. Sarah began the two-minute food fight by putting whipped cream on Tanya's nose.

JUST A SIP! Seniors Patrick McGiff, Melissa Brown, and Jessica Morrow enjoy a meal at Spanky's--enjoy, that is, until Melissa tries to drink all of Patrick's Dr. Pepper!

Spending Time With Friends

OUT & ABOUT

Did you know?

One weekend, from 2:15
Friday to 7:45 Monday, is exactly 393 minutes.

"Jason Sams hit a tree while swinging on a rope swing."

"I ran into the glass door at Little Caesar's chasing after someone."

"I forgot to pay for pizza and was waiting to get my change back when I realized that I never paid in the first place."

"At field hockey camp, as a sophomore, my shorts got caught on the car door, ripping them into two."

-Jesse Jennell, senior

-Wendy Ray, sophomore

-Monica Rosebrook, junior

-Miss Nikki Nevarat

Americans are peeved and annoyed 1 out of every 3 days a year.

NERVE RACKING

Don't you hate it when...?

COME ON. Senior Joe Willis waits in a seemingly never ending line of cars. Joe listened to music as he waited in the line which formed every day when students tried to get out of the parking lot at the same time.

OH MY. Awaiting their salads, senior John Brewster tells sophomore Emily Bierlien a joke. John and Emily shared the same pet peeve--waiting in long lunch lines, but friendly conversation made the wait easier to swallow!

AW, MOM. Scott Rooney's mother adjusts his bow tie before he has his senior picture taken. Although Scott pretended to complain about his mom's "help," he later admitted that he was glad she was there. Mrs. Rooney paid for the pictures as well as a senior ad and yearbook.

pet peeve mania

1. What drives you nuts literally?
  - a) tailgaters
  - b) slow in fast lane
  - c) back seat drivers
  - d) little old ladies
2. What annoys you in school?
  - a) locker jams
  - b) crowded halls
  - c) not enough time between classes
  - d) time out (aka STOP)
3. What kind of people make you mad?
  - a) knuckle cracking people
  - b) whiners
  - c) fake people
  - d) trash talkers
4. What is it that gets on your nerves?
  - a) bad hair days
  - b) silent phone conversations
  - c) mind blocks
  - d) the kid sitting next to you

WHAT A MESS. Following a confetti filled pep rally, freshman Jennifer Irick carries trash to the cafeteria. Rumors flew that there would be no more pep rallies if the trash wasn't controlled.

GET ME OUT OF HERE. Standing in Commons 1 before the first bell, Senior Stacy Marshall forces her way through the crowd to get to the attendance office. Juniors Kim Brenner and Natalie Hamm saw that they had three minutes before the bell which released everyone to first period.

- Shanita Quick, senior

"I can't stand people who don't shut up."

- Nicole Thompson, freshman

"I hate it when there is a big group of people, blocking the hall, making you late."

- Amy Holt, senior

"When you are sitting next to someone at McDonald's, and they're crunching on ice with their mouth open."

Did you Know?
Two out of every five students has a job.

...AND THE DISH RAN AWAY WITH THE SPOON. Senior Tom Liddiard buses the leftovers from previous customers. Tom was one of the few students to get a job at the newly opened Ruby Tuesdays; over 30 students applied for a job and only five were accepted.

AWWWWWWWW...
Kristen Richardson ties Hannah Hartig's roller skates. Whenever Kristen wasn't working at Carlos O'Kelly's, she babysat Hannah, her boss's daughter.

What was the worst thing you ever had to do at work?

! "When I had to clean the bathrooms."

Jen Omundson, junior: waitress at Padrino's Pizza

! "The worst thing was when I had to clean up after someone got sick."

Mrs. Mary Catherine Hornung: teacher

! "When I had to scrub some woman's dirty head."

Michelle Hughes, senior: hair care specialist at Profile's Hair Studio

! "I did not like when I had to clean goop off the tables."

Diana Norman, junior: waitress at Kobe Japanese Steakhouse

LETTING OFF STEAM. With the swish of steaming milk, junior Erika Karr makes capuccino at Gargoyles Coffee Bar. Because of the 7:30 p.m. curfew which several Aquia Towne Center merchants enforced, the only teens allowed in Gargoyles after that time were the ones who worked there!

YOUR CHANGE, SIR! Counting carefully, junior Allison Saunders makes change on a cafe mocha purchase. This customer said that her service was "great!"

ANOTHER PAPER BAG! Senior Jason Foreman loads a shopper's car. He bagged groceries while working at Shopper's Food after school.

AT LEAST THEY PAY ME FOR THIS. Sometimes, the only thing that gets senior Jen Bonds through the day is the thought of a pay check at the end of the week. When tables needed to be cleaned at Carlos O' Kelly's, Jen was there with towel in hand.

MAKING A LIVING

It was the weekend, time to go out and relax, right? Wrong! You had to get up and head to work for that boss who was sitting in an air-conditioned office. Why torture yourself? You needed cash, of course, and that's the only reason you were doing it! Senior Tom Liddiard, the self-dubbed "Salad Boy" of Ruby Tuesday's, saw work as "a cash-flow opportunity." His friend and co-worker, junior Kristina Kalka, cited the same reason for needing a job: "I need to work in order to save money for college." Of course, work had other benefits for Kristina, who said. "I love working at Ruby Tuesday's because we get to work with all those great guys!"

Top Ten Ways To Annoy Customers

10. When they walk in, walk to the back room.
9. When they call, act like you called them.
8. Talk loudly.
7. Repeat orders to yourself under your breath.
6. Leave them waiting at the drive-thru speaker.
5. Stare.
4. Draw chalk outlines outside.
3. Switch the men and womens' bathroom signs.
2. Put "Use Other Door" signs on each entrance.
1. Ignore them.

FLIPPIN' OUT. With spatula in hand, senior Marc Thorton fries a quarter pounder at the Wal-Mart McDonald's. Of the five McDonald's in the Stafford area, students said this one had the smallest work area.

BE KIND--REWIND. Sophomore James Dormer types in senior Chris Cooney's name, renting him a copy of the movie "Pulp Fiction." James, who worked at Family Video, was always ready with a recommendation for those seeking commercial free entertainment.

NOT AGAIN... Pat Haffey makes his money the old-fashioned way--he picks up after other people. Working at Carlos O'Kelly's whenever he could, Pat cleaned booths, bused tables, and generally did whatever possible to keep the restaurant clean.

CAN I HELP YOU? Senior Stephanie Corbin greets a caller at Mary Washington Hospital. Stephanie started volunteering as a receptionist this summer through a program called Students Serving Stafford.

The Learn and Serve class was

MAKING A MARK

Hands On the Community

Did you know?

BPHS is the first school in Stafford Co. to have a Learn and Serve program.

CLOSE TO HOME. Learn and Serve students seniors Heather Powelson and Stephanie Corbin, sophomore Kelli Snider, and seniors Nikki Harris, Kate Wiechert, and Brittany Robertson pause to remember victims of the AIDS virus. The section of the quilt in front of which they had stopped was added by the area AIDS support center of Fredericksburg.

TAKE ONE PLEASE. Sophomore Chris Scarce hands out literature about the AIDS quilt. This was just one way the students volunteered in D.C. when the travelling quilt was on display October 11th.

What Those Who Were Served Had to Say...

"I would like to... extend my appreciation to the... Learn and Serve Class for your participation in our first-ever Stafford County Parade. Please express our gratitude to those who helped... Your contributions added greatly..."

C.M. Williams, Jr., County Administrator

"Without their help, the Great Rappahannock Rubber Duck Race could not have been so successful."

Carl Henne, Chairman Central VA Housing Coalition

"I wanted to let you know what a big hit your letters were with our residents!"

Mrs. Winnie Sullivan, Potomac Point Residence

RUBBER DUCKY, YOU'RE THE ONE! Seniors Brian Rhoades and Joey Willis wait for a contestant to come to their game, which involved knocking bowling pins over with a baseball. Joey and Brian worked this game at the Rubber Duck Race held in Pratt Memorial Park.

RIDE 'EM COWBOY! Senior Amy Mitchell gets a stubborn pony to cooperate with her. Amy volunteered at the Rubber Duck Race in October, and she was assigned to be a pony ride handler.

LEAVING A LEGACY

STILL FRIENDS. Seniors Tara Nieder, Brooke Austin, and Michelle Wilson read a note together before their freshmen cheerleading practice. Tara, Brooke, and Michelle spent all four years on the cheerleading squad.

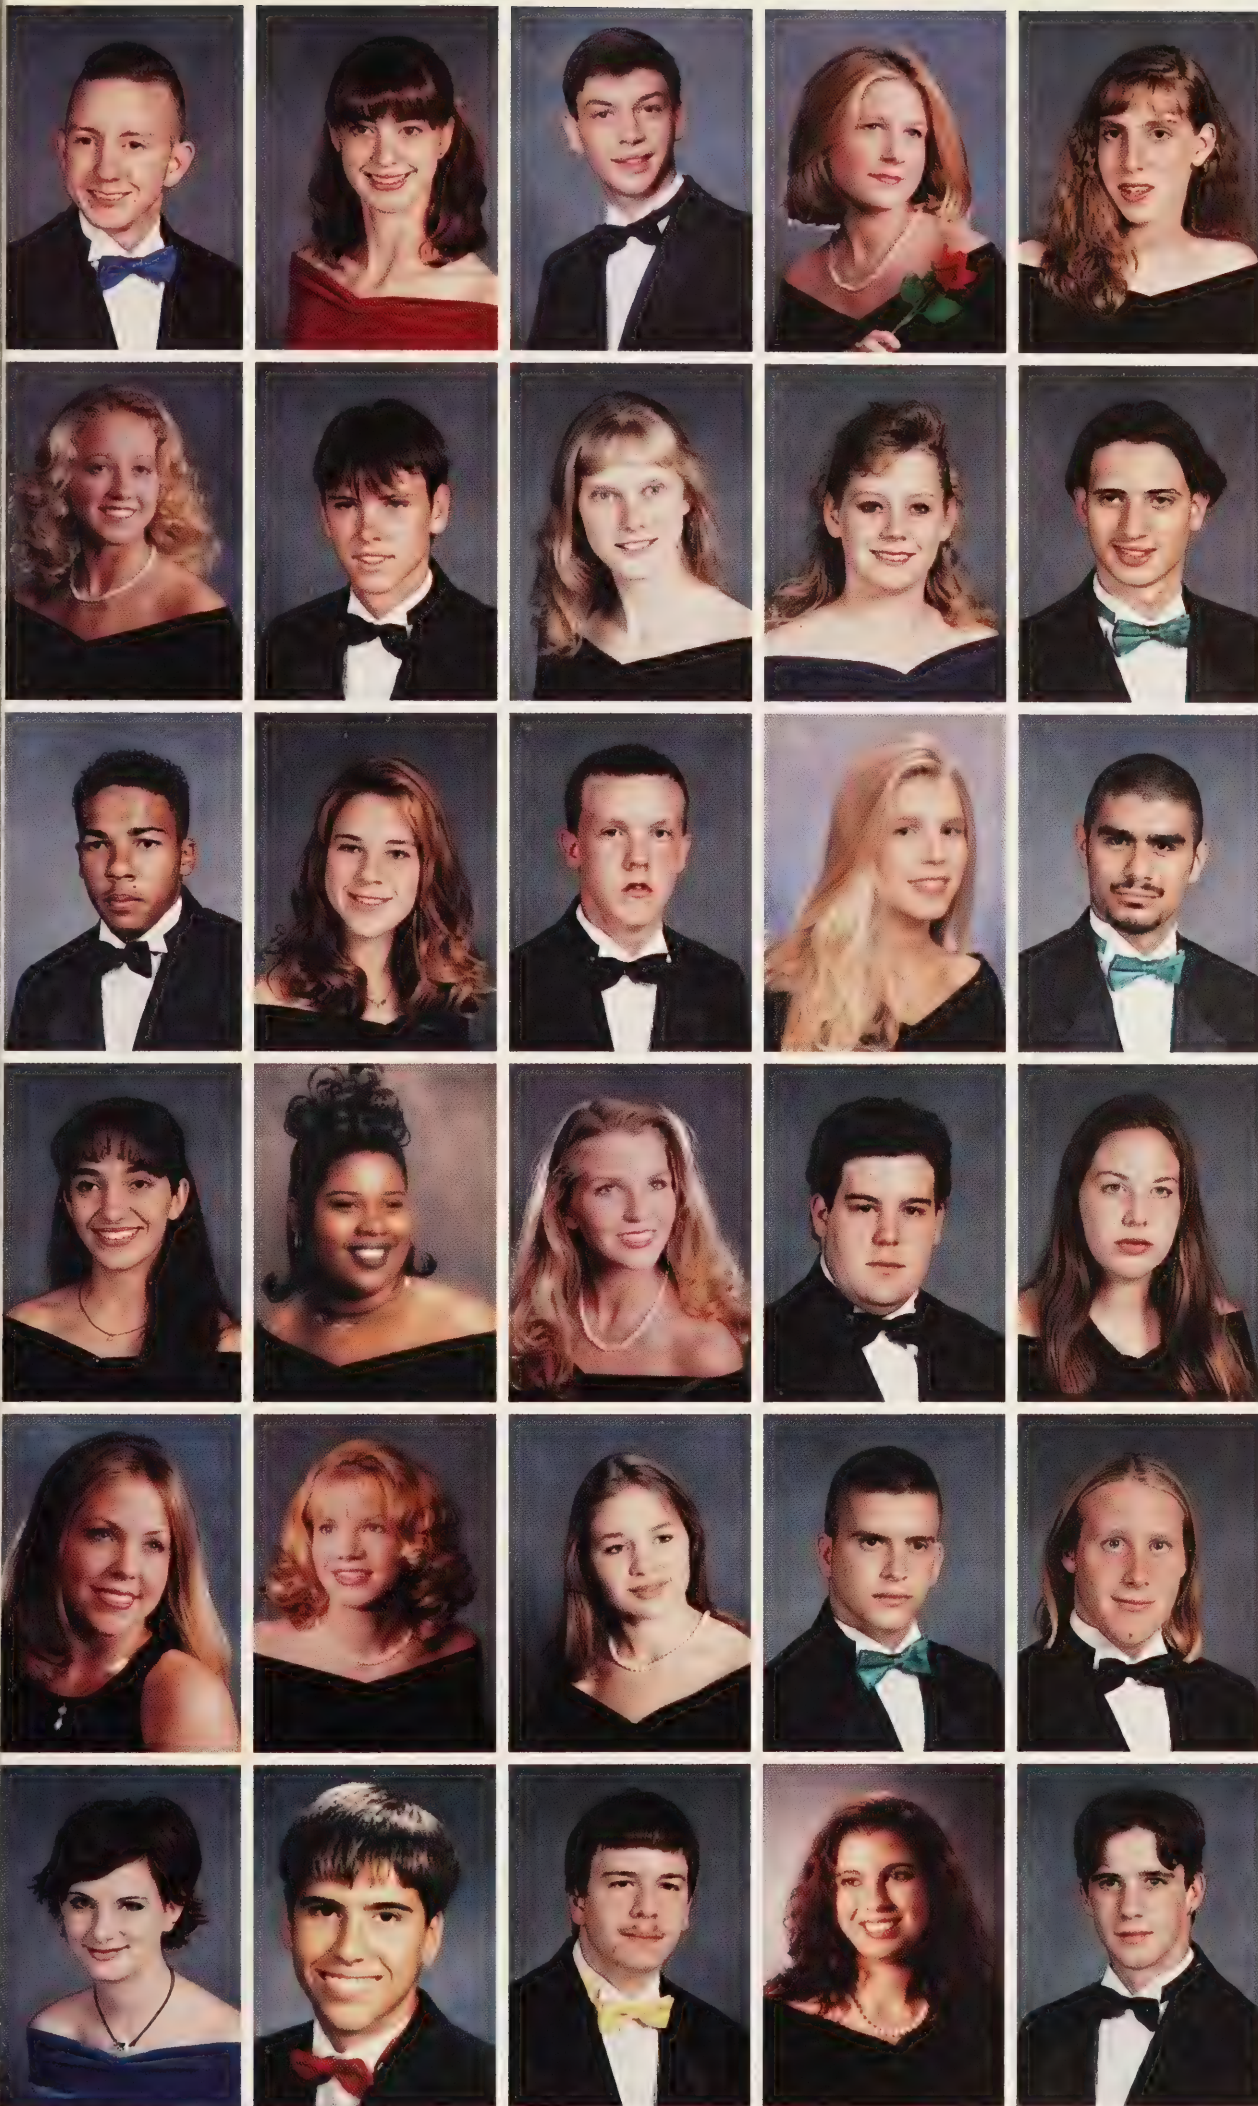

The class of '97 journeyed into unfamiliar territory four years ago.

Unsure of what was yet to come, we began to make our mark and leave our legacy. The two previous classes were a mix of students from rivals Stafford and North Stafford; we were, on the other hand, true Black-Hawks. The first class to complete four years here, we witnessed the building's construction, and we struggled to make this place seem like ours. We would be the first to see it from start to finish, the "first in full flight." Together we faced the good and bad--we celebrated friendship and victory, and we overcame tragedy. Through it all, we were determined to see it through.

Why is it important to vote?

IT'S A SENIOR THING. At 1:55 all seniors were excused to the have a group picture taken in the football stadium. The picture, one of the new traditions created by the "first in full flight" class of '97, took just under five minutes to organize! The yearbook staff wishes the Class of '97 the best of luck in all they do!

SIGN ME UP!

Junior Jaime Irick puts her signature on the Josten's sheet that says she has turned her friend's class ring. Getting the same number of people as your graduation year to turn your ring was thought to bring good luck. For the junior class, following tradition meant seeking out 98 people to turn their class rings!

FEARLESS LEADERS.

Junior class officers Eric Garcia, Erika Karr, Emily Brown, and Hans Reide revel in the Indian Summer sunshine. The four took a few momnets to relax after a meeting where they had begun planning for the prom. The theme they decided on for the prom was "A night in Paris," to include a model of the Eiffel Tower and living plants in a park with streetlights!

We had conflicts but we always worked them out, and we worked well together.

Erika Karr, junior

As representatives of our class, we hoped to plan a prom that our entire school would enjoy.

Eric Garcia, junior

We all got along really well and

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT. Junior Aaron Armendariz studies problem number six on an after school Math Analysis test. Mrs Nettie Sanger's math tests served the dual purposes of testing for materials she had covered and prepared for the math section of the SAT's. The math SAT's were half of a test which colleges used for admission purposes.

*What are you're expectations
about the SAT's?*

The SAT's were easy, but I got so nervous that I got it wrong!
Becca Ronquest, junior

The SAT's were really long.
Anna Blice, junior

The SAT's are so stressful that I can not think of anything else.
*Heather Murry,

AWAY WE GO!

What was your favorite field trip?

66

We went to the Natural History Muesum and we snuck out to goto the Christian Rock festival.

Ted Thorig, junior

The Capital--it was the only field trip I've been on.

Greg Flierl, junior

I went on a big aircraft carrier in fifth grade, and I got to spend the night.

Mary Pomeroy, junior

Going to a play and then the mall for two hours.

Shannon Cahill, junior

We went to Virginia Beach for focus.

TO FLIRT OR NOT TO FLIRT

Do flirting and friendship go hand in hand?

“

It's okay to just joke around with friends--anything more and I get scared.

*Danny Brush,
sophomore*

You can flirt with friends as long as you both know
it's nothing more.
*Kelli Snider,
sophomore*

It's okay to flirt with friends because everyone knows it's just friends and that's all.

Jill Wagner, sophomore

I think friends should just be friends.

*Clint Brown,

WHAT'S YOUR SIGN? Sophomores Danny Brush and Rachael Dealy flirt in the commons after school. While most students did their socializing with friends outside of school, many new relationships were formed over quiet discussions in the commons area. Students particularly frequented the commons area directly before and after school.

ONCE UPON A TIME.

LEADERS OF THE PACK

Why did you want to be a class officer?

I wanted to be involved with my class.

*Alaina Bowling,
sophomore*

Because it's good to show my school spirit.

*Tim Foley,
sophomore*

I want to serve my class and help bring them across that bridge into the 21st century.

*Andrew Bond,
sophomore*

I thought it would be a good opportunity to help out my class.

*Kurt Toth,
sophomore*

I wanted to help out my class by being involved in class activities.

*Laura Karr,
sophomore*

Much Work?*

No, there are four of us, and we help out each other so that no one person has too much work to do.

*Kristen Weichert,
freshman*

I was prepared for the responsibility from the beginning, so I didn't get weighed down.

*Amanda Meadows,
freshman*

No, I can handle it, but it's a hard job.

*Ashley Langhorne,
freshman*

Sean Courtney, freshman

There are more guys to choose from!

Ashley Reed, freshman

There is more responsibility in high school. It's up to you if you want to do well.

Amanda Meadows, freshman

GLAZE ON, GLAZE OFF. Senior Steve Duran glazes his finished ceramic bowl while senior Toni Pugleise smooths down the clay on his bowl. When they finished the bowls, Steve and Toni put the bowls back into the kiln to be finished. Later, the bowls were used as microwavable casserole dishes!

See What We Do

"GOOD JOB, SOCCER BOY!" Sophomore Steven Stanley (56) and senior J.R. Sheets (9) congratulate sophomore Eric Braxton (10) on his first run for a touchdown as a varsity player. Eric was known as an excellent soccer player, so his teammates said they "weren't surprised when he did so well running the football."

From banners on the gym walls to accomplishments in the academic halls, 1490 students left their mark on Brooke Point history for all to SEE. We tackled any challenge presented to US, whether in academics, athletics, or in service to the community.

From algebra to English, we built on our knowledge, acquiring new information that would lead us into the 21st Century.

With 725 students participating in athletic programs and club activities, the Black-Hawk was STRONG. From football to cross country, from the dance team to the step team, we rose to every occasion, delivering pride, victory, and memories that will last a lifetime.

Through the many student organizations, INteract, the Varsity Club, FBLA, and NHS to name a few, we volunteered our time, pursuing our interests and ensuring that both school and community were interesting and unique places to live and learn. What do we do? Anything... and EVERYTHING!

PUSHING IT TO THE LIMIT.

THE DEFENSIVE LINE PRACTICES A TACKLING DRILL TO BOOST ENDURANCE FOR THE UPCOMING GAME. THE DEFENSE HELD SPOTSYLVANIA TO A 40-0 SHUT-OUT.

SWEPT OFF HIS FEET. SOPHOMORE JOSH BURKE (67) SHOWS HIS ENTHUSIASM OVER A GOOD PLAY BY TOSSING SOPHOMORE JOEY DAVIS (24) OVER HIS SHOULDER. SOPHOMORE TIM FOLEY (23) SAID "THE JV TEAM WAS REALLY CLOSE THIS YEAR, AND HAVING AN UNDEFEATED SEASON BROUGHT US EVEN CLOSER."

HERE'S THE DEAL. COACH MIKE SMOOT DISCUSSES PROPER POSTURE AND MOVEMENT WHEN ON--AND GETTING OFF OF--THE OFFENSIVE LINE. WHILE PRACTICES WERE LONG, GOING EVERY DAY FROM 2:45-5:30, JV PLAYERS AGREED THAT "HARD WORK AND THE GOOD COACHING HELPED US HAVE THE EXCELLENT SEASON WE DID."

DON'T EVEN THINK ABOUT IT! SENIOR HARVEY BELTRAN JOKES AROUND WITH HIS KID BROTHER, FRESHMAN DAVID BELTRAN (12), AND FRESHMAN JOE LEVISTER (78) BY TEASING THEM WITH A VERY BIG, VERY COLD COOLER OF WATER. HARVEY WAS ON THE VARSITY FOOTBALL TEAM THIS YEAR, AND CAME TO THE FRESHMAN GAME TO HELP OUT ON THE SIDELINES. THE WATER NEVER MADE IT OUT OF THE COOLER.

HOT POTATO. FRESHMAN FOOTBALL COACH BISHOP TOSSES A FOOTBALL TO OFFENSIVE PLAYERS FRESHMEN IAN SULLIVAN (22), JASON HEISLER (11), AND JEFF WILLS (81) WHILE THEY RUN AGILITY DRILLS. THIS SPECIFIC AGILITY DRILL, DESIGNED TO GET THE KNEES HIGH AND SHARPEN FOCUS ON THE BALL, WAS RUN ONCE OR TWICE A WEEK DURING PRACTICES

On the Scene!

"In defensive practice, hitting my teammates prepared me the most for upcoming games."

-Dan Ruppert, sophomore

"We always worked together and we had cool coaches."

-Chahrouz Novri, freshman

"One of our inside jokes was Red-Dog/48--this was the secret call to pile on top of whoever's birthday it was."

-Mike Eddy, freshman

"I think our great team work is what helped us go 10-0."

-Brandon Robinson, sophomore

LEAN, MEAN, FIGHTING MACHINES. THE JV FOOTBALL TEAM SCRIMMAGES DURING A SUMMER PRACTICE, GETTING TO BE READY FOR AN UNDEFEATED SEASON. THE RED TEAM, MADE UP OF THE SCOUT DEFENSE PLAYERS, PLAYED THE WHITE TEAM CONSISTING OF THE STARTING OFFENSIVE PLAYERS. DEFENSIVE PLAYERS LOOKING TO EARN STARTING SPOTS HAD TO PROVE THEY COULD HANDLE A FIRST STRING TEAM.

IN THE LINE OF DUTY. FRESHMAN JEFF WILLS (81) GRABS SOME GROUND ON THE SIDELINES AFTER TAKING A HARD HIT WHILE PRACTICING FOR THE DEFENSIVE LINE. HE ENDED UP IN THE HOSPITAL THE NEXT DAY WITH A CONCUSSION, BUT HE RECOVERED AND CONTINUED TO PLAY FOR THE TEAM.

-Ryan Pangretic, senior, after the District win

"At the beginning of the season we were not all in the same mindset. Now that we are in the Regional Championships, we are."

-Scott Ralph, junior

A HELPING HAND.

SENIOR RUNNING BACK KEVIN CLINE (24) HELPS HIS OPPONENT GET UP FROM A FALL HE TOOK DURING THE LAST PLAY. COACHES AND PLAYERS ALIKE AGREED THAT FOCUSING ON GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP WAS A KEY ELEMENT TO "BLACK-HAWK FOOTBALL" SUCCESS.

MAN OF STEEL! SOPHOMORE ALL-DISTRICT RUNNING BACK DANIEL DAVIS (5) CARRIES THE BALL FOR ANOTHER ONE OF HIS FAMOUS LONG RUNS DOWN THE FIELD FOR A TOUCHDOWN. WITH THE HELP OF HIS OFFENSIVE LINE, DANIEL RAN FOR FOUR OF THE SIX TOUCHDOWNS THE TEAM SCORED AGAINST CULPEPER.

RIGHT 49. SENIOR QUARTERBACK BRANDEN CAMPBELL (11) WAITS FOR THE PLAY TO BE CALLED IN FROM THE SIDELINES. SOLID PLAY AND EXCELLENT COACHING, LED BY HEAD COACH KEN BROWN HELPED BRANDEN LEAD THE TEAM TO A 42-14 VICTORY OVER CULPEPER FOR THE DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP TITLE.

YOU DA' MAN! JUNIOR GUARD HERBY BROWN (50) CONGRATULATES JUNIOR TACKLE SCOTT RALPH (75) FOR A GOOD PLAY. COMMENTING ON THE CLOSE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN TEAMMATES, SCOTT SAID, "THE OFFENSIVE LINE WAS A FAMILY OF ITS OWN THIS YEAR."

"I LOVE YOU MAN." SOPHOMORE DANIEL DAVIS (5) AND SENIOR MAURICE JERRALDS (1) SHOW WHAT WAS, ACCORDING TO DANIEL, "THE CLOSENESS WHICH TEAMMATES HAVE THIS YEAR."

"KEEP FOCUSED!" SENIOR DEFENSIVE TACKLE TOM PETERS (62) AND SENIOR DEFENSIVE END JOE KWIATKOWSKI (64) GET PUMPED UP FOR THE BIG GAME BY SHARING A FEW WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT.

"As One:

Good, Better, Best,

'Til Our Good is Better

and Our Better's Best!

DOWN, SET... JUNIOR CENTER MIKE HANNON (67) SETS UP, READY TO SNAP THE BALL TO QUARTERBACK BRANDEN CAMPBELL (11). TO GET ALL OF THE PLAYERS USED TO RUNNING PLAYS FROM SCRIMMAGE--WATCHING THE SNAP COUNT, HANDLING HAND-OFFS, AND READING DEFENSES, COACHES HAD THE TEAM RUN THESE TYPES OF PLAYS OVER AND OVER AGAIN AT PRACTICE. ACCORDING TO ONE STUDENT TRAINER, JUNIOR ADAM WASHINGTON, THE PLAYERS "GAVE IT THEIR BEST EVERYDAY AT PRACTICE."

GO GET 'EM. COACH HEIDI HABHEGGER GATHERS THE TEAM TOGETHER, INTRODUCING THEM TO THEIR CHANCELLOR OPPONENTS. THESE INTRODUCTIONS, A FORMALITY WHICH TOOK PLACE BEFORE EACH GAME, ALLOWED THE COACHES TO GO OVER THE PAIRINGS AND THE RULES FOR THE MATCH.

HIT THE BOOKS. SITTING ON THE SIDELINES, SENIOR KELLY THOMPSON WORKS ON HER ENGLISH PAPER WHILE WAITING FOR HER MATCH TO BEGIN. MATCHES, SUCH AS THIS ONE AGAINST CHANCELLOR, STARTED AFTER SCHOOL AT 3:30 AND LASTED AS LATE AS 9:00 P.M. KELLY LOOKED FOR ANY FREE TIME SHE COULD FIND TO DO HER HOMEWORK ON GAME DAY.

ON YOUR TOES.

JUNIOR VALERIE MICCIO AWAITS HER OPPONENT'S SERVE DURING A WARM-UP MATCH. VALERIE AND THE TEAM PRACTICED AGAINST THEIR ASSIGNED OPPONENTS TO WARM-UP, AND, WHEN THEY WERE READY TO BEGIN, THEY KEPT THEIR OWN SCORES.

"Our team was mostly seniors, so we all knew each other, and we had a lot of fun playing this year."

-Kate Wiechert, senior

"We took all of our dead balls and hit them as hard as we could at the football team."

-Jessie Welborn, senior

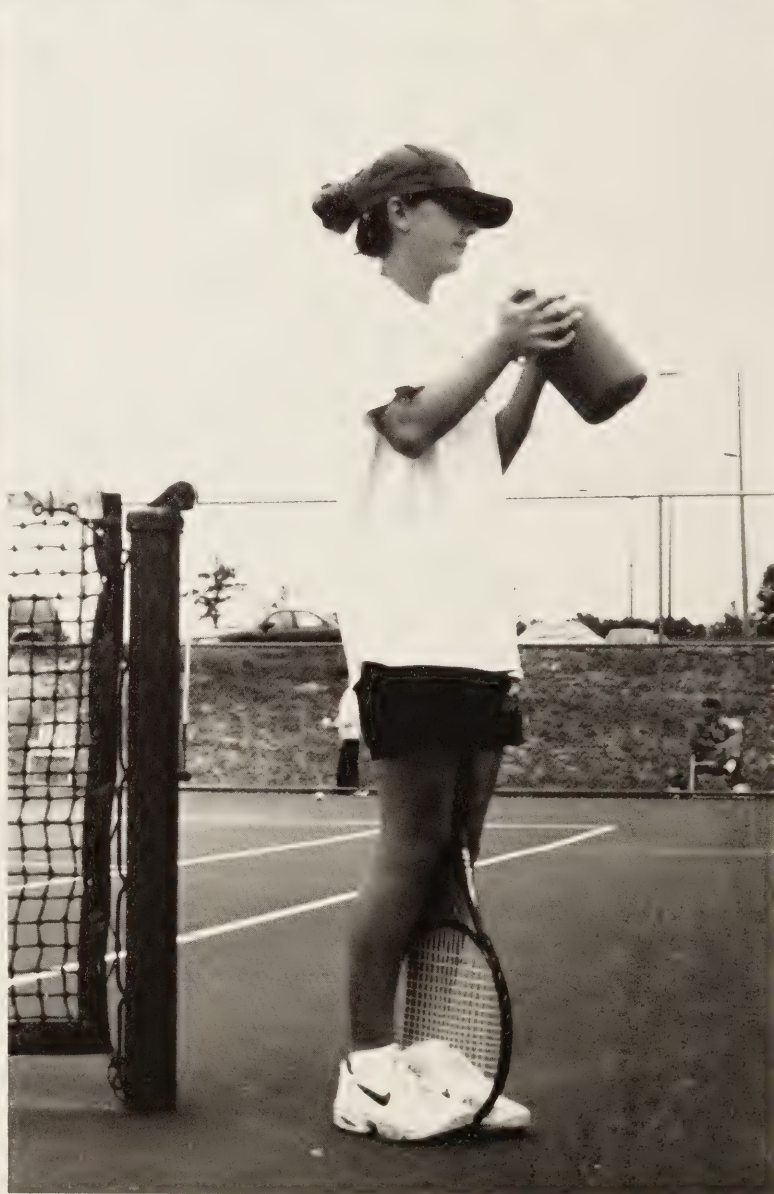

"We watched the Cross Country and Field Hockey teams run miles -- I am glad I chose tennis!"

-Lisa Oaks, senior

"Practice was great because we worked together with friends to get better."

-Laura Karneszewski, sophomore

JUST ONE MORE SIP. STOPPING TO REST BETWEEN GAMES, SENIOR BRIENNE WAGNER REPLENISHES HER BODY'S WATER SUPPLY. WITH TEMPERATURES REACHING 87 DEGREES DURING THE MATCH AGAINST HYLTON, BRIENNE HAD TO BE CAREFUL NOT TO BECOME DEHYDRATED. HER COACH AND TRAINERS ADVISED BRIENNE TO TAKE REGULAR WATER BREAKS TO COMBAT THE HEAT.

HERE YOU GO. SENIORS MEGHAN CARROLL AND KATE WIECHERT LOCATE THEIR NAMES IN THE MATCH BOOK, A BOOK WHICH LISTED EACH PLAYERS SEED AND OPPONENT FOR THE UPCOMING MATCH AGAINST OSBOURNE PARK. MEGHAN, WEARING HER LUCKY HAT, WAS PLEASED TO BE MEETING AN OPPONENT SHE HAD PLAYED BEFORE. SEVERAL MEMBERS OF THE TEAM WORE LUCKY HATS, BELIEVING THAT THE HAIR WEAR CONTRIBUTED TO THE OVERALL SUCCESS OF THE TEAM.

LOVE-LOVE. WITH BALL IN HAND, SENIOR JESSIE WELBORN PREPARES TO SERVE TO HER OPPONENT DURING A WARM-UP MATCH. THE NUMBER ONE SEED ON THE TEAM, JESSIE'S STORNG FIRST SERVE LIMITED HER OPPONENTS' SERVICE RETURNS.

TAKE THAT. SENIOR LISA OAKS CATCHES HER BALANCE AFTER RETURNING THE BALL WITH HER BACKHAND. ACCORDING TO COACH HABHEGGER, "HAVING BOTH A STRONG BACKHAND AND FOREHAND AS WELL AS GOOD SPEED ALLOWED LISA TO REALLY COVER THE WHOLE COURT."

TRUCKIN'. SENIOR NATALIE ALEXANDER AND JUNIORS LESLIE LANATA AND EMILY BROWN LEAD THROUGH THE MIDDLE OF THE CULPEPER RACE. TEAMMATES KEPT TOGETHER, MAINTAINING A STEADY PACE WITH THE LEADER OF THEIR GROUP.

LOW IMPACT WORKOUT. SENIORS ANNE WALLER AND AMY HOLT WALK BRISKLY AROUND THE TRACK AFTER THEIR EIGHT MILE RUN. COOLING DOWN BY WALKING AFTER A RUN PREVENTED MUSCLE STRESS AND WAS A DAILY PART OF THEIR ROUTINE.

BRAVING THE ELEMENTS. SOPHOMORE VINCENT MASCARENAS RUNS IN THE RAIN DURING AN AFTER SCHOOL PRACTICE. THROUGH ANY WEATHER, VINCENT AND HIS TEAMMATES RAN THE TRACK AROUND THE SCHOOL TO PREPARE FOR MEETS.

THE FINAL STRETCH. SENIOR NATHAN LUDWIG AND JUNIOR TED THOERIG RUN THE FINAL QUARTER MILE OF THE RACE. ALTHOUGH EXHAUSTED, RUNNERS CLAIMED THE LAST LEG OF THE RACE WAS THE MOST SATISFYING BECAUSE OF THE SENSE OF ACCOMPLISHMENT THEY FELT AT THE FINISH.

WOULD ALL STATE ATHLETES PLEASE RAISE THEIR HAND? JUNIOR EMILY BROWN WAVES TO A TEAMMATE ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THE TRACK AS TEAMMATES SENIOR NATALIE ALEXANDER AND SOPHOMORE TRACIE WOLFF KEEP PACE WITH HER DURING A ONE MILE WARM-UP LAP.

"What helped us most was a strong desire for the team to do well. We talked about how we wanted to run the races, and who to run with to keep focused."

-Mrs. Kristen Knott-coach

"When I went to States, I was so overwhelmed and everyone was so good that I wasn't thinking, 'RACE, RUN, KILL.' I was thinking, 'Wow, I am at States.'"

-Emily Brown-Junior

"Jenny Wolff really helped me because she had that special inspirational thing going on."

NOTHING BUT NET. FRESHMAN SARA EBERHARDT DRIBBLES AWAY FROM SOPHOMORE KATIE SMITH AT PRACTICE. THE JV AND VARSITY TEAMS SCRIMMAGED AND THE LOSING TEAM HAD TO RUN.

LINE IT UP! THE JV HOCKEY TEAM LINES UP FOR AN EQUIPMENT CHECK. REFEREES CHECKED TO MAKE SURE MOUTHGUARDS, CLEATS AND STICKS WERE LEGAL.

I AM RIGHT BEHIND YOU!

SENIOR SUSAN FELTHOELTER (9) TRIES TO REGAIN HER STABILITY AS SOPHOMORE JESS CONSTANTINE (23) MOVES IN TO ASSIST HER. IN A FACE PACES SPORT LIKE FIELD HOCKEY, SUSAN AND HER TEAMMATES COUNTED ON EACH OTHER TO BACK UP THEIR PLAYING. WHEN SUSAN LOST THIS PASS, JESS RECOVERED IT AND MOVED THE BALL UPFIELD TOWARDS THE OPPONENT'S GOAL.

CAN'T CATCH ME! JUNIOR MELISSA WALTERS (11) SPRINTS PAST HER OPPONENT AND HEADS TOWARDS THE GOAL. MELISSA WORKED ON HER ENDURANCE AND SPEED THROUGHOUT THE SEASON SO SHE COULD EXCEL IN ONE-ON-ONE SITUATIONS, BEATING HER OPPONENTS TO THE BALL--AND THE GOAL!

On the Scene!

"I really enjoy working with the girls, especially when I get to drive the ball hard and watch them chase it."

-Coach Nikki Neveras

"The highlight of the season was going to coach Hughes' house for dinner as a team. That was when our team really became a family."

-Susan Felhoelter, senior

"The hockey team is an extremley cohesive unit, we constantly strive to improve while maintaining a sense of team unity."

-Coach Kathleen Hughes

I GOT IT. SENIOR KATIE RAABE (10) RACES AGAINST A NORTH STAFFORD PLAYER TO A LOOSE BALL. AS A DEFENSIVE PLAYER, KATIE'S JOB WAS TO GET TO THE BALL AND GET IT CLEARED BEFORE THE OTHER TEAM HAD A CHANCE TO SET UP A SHOT ON GOAL.

GOOD GAME! JUNIORS MONICA ROSEBROOK (17), JUSTINE BRUCKER-SERANNO (25), AND SOPHOMORE STACEY OPASKA (15) CONGRATULATE THIER OPPOSING TEAM ON A WELL-PLAYED GAME. GOOD SPORTSMANSHIP WAS STRESSED BY COACH KITTY HUGHES AS WELL AS AT A FALL SPORTS COACHES MEETING--ALL COACHES CONSIDERED SPORTSMANSHIP TO BE A KEY ELEMENT TO SUCCESS.

HEYTHATSMINE! SOPHOMORE WENDY RAY (32) PUSHES INTO HER OPPONENT, STEALING THE BALL AND SWITCHING THE MOMENTUM FROM DEFENSE TO OFFENSE. WITH WHAT COACHES CALLED "GOOD DEFENSIVE INSTINCTS," WENDY TURNED THE BALL AROUND AND HEADED TO THE OPPONENT'S GOAL, LOOKING FOR PEN TEAMMATES TO PASS TO.

On the Scene!

"What other sport can you play for free on a course that usually charges $75?"

-Coach Brian Hackett

"I'm not sure that some people even know that we have a golf team here."

-Josh Arthur, freshman

"I wasn't a golfer until I saw Happy Gilmore. He was my inspiration."

-Mike Winston, junior

"I was glad to contribute to the team by being the intimidation factor. The other teams always got a little scared when they saw a buff guy like me coming out on the course."

-Eric Place, junior

IT'S IN! JUNIOR JEFF GRAHAM SINKS A 35 FOOT PUTT FOR A BIRDIE ON THE FIRST HOLE AT THE GAUNTLET GOLF COURSE WHERE THE TEAM PRACTICED. KEVIN WAS, ACCORDING TO COACH HACKETT, A "WELCOME ADDITION" TO THE GOLF TEAM WHEN HE MOVED HERE FROM OKLAHOMA.

IT'S A DIRTY JOB. JUNIOR PAT CARROLL BLASTS OUT OF THE DIRT EDGING THE BUNKER ON THE SIXTH HOLE AT THE GAUNTLET. THIS SHOT AND OTHERS DURING THE ROUND LOWERED HIS SCORE ENOUGH TO QUALIFY HIM FOR MATCH PLAY THE FOLLOWING DAY. BECAUSE THERE WERE NOT ENOUGH SPOTS IN THE MATCHES FOR EVERYONE ON THE TEAM, THE PLAYERS HAD TO OUTSHOOT THEIR TEAMMATES DURING PRACTICES TO EARN THE RIGHT TO PLAY.

THUMBS UP. SOPHOMORE CLAY CAMPBELL AND JUNIORS PAT CARROLL AND JEFF GRAHAM WALK FROM FARRAGUT DRIVE TO THE EIGHTH HOLE. DESPITE THE MYTH THAT GOLF IS BORING, THESE GOLFERS SAID THAT THEY HAD "A LOT OF FUN," SEEN HERE AS THEY GOOF AROUND, CARRYING THEIR GOLF BAGS WITH THEIR FOREHEADS.

ROUGH STUFF. SOPHOMORE SHAWN DAYTON AND JUNIORS PAT CARROLL AND JEFF GRAHAM LOOK ON AS FRESHMAN KEVIN GRAHAM DRIVES THE BALL OUT OF THE ROUGH. KEVIN'S HARD WORK AND LOW SCORES LET HIM MOVE ON AS FAR AS THE REGIONAL COMPETITION.

EYE ON THE BALL. SOPHOMORE CLAY CAMPBELL CONCENTRATES ON HIS SWING AS HE TEES OFF. ALTHOUGH CLAY HORSED AROUND WITH HIS TEAMMATES, HE AND THEY BECAME MORE SERIOUS WHEN IT WAS TIME TO PLAY GOLF.

FORE! SOPHOMORE, SHAWN DAYTON WATCHES HIS BALL ALL THE WAY TO THE GROUND AFTER MAKING HIS APPROACH SHOT. SHAWN ONE-PUTTED THE HOLE TO GET A BIRDIE.

COACH'S CADDY.

COACH BRIAN HACKETT LOOKS ON FROM THE COMFORT OF HIS GOLF CART AS SOPHOMORE BRIAN HOOD DRIVES THE BALL ON THE FOURTH HOLE. MR. HACKETT WAS THE ONLY ONE ALLOWED BY THE COURSE STAFF TO RIDE IN THE GOLF CART. THE REST OF THE TEAM COULD OFTEN BE SEEN TRYING TO HANG FOUR TO FIVE PEOPLE OFF THE BACK OF THE GOLF CART, AVOIDING THE OFTEN LENGTHY WALKS IN BETWEEN HOLES.

NOT TOO TIGHT. SOPHOMORE STEVEN STANLEY GETS HIS ANKLE TAPED BY TRAINER SENIOR TOM LIDDIARD DURING THE FRESHMAN GAME AT STAFFORD HIGH SCHOOL. ALTHOUGH NOT ALL PLAYERS LIKED THE TAPE, STEVEN HAD HIS ANKLE TAPED FOR STABILITY, HOPING TO PREVENT INJURY.

CAN'T TOUCH THIS. CLUTCHING THE BALL TO HIS CHEST, SOPHOMORE TIM TRYON BREAKS THROUGH THE PRESS SET UP BY THE CULPEPER DEFENDERS. AFTER SPINNING PAST HIS DEFENDER, TIM MADE THE BASKET, BRINGING THE LEAD TO 78-70.

OUR BALL. AFTER BOXING OUT, FRESHMAN TEAM MEMBER NICK BLAKE (50) GETS THE REBOUND FROM A FOUL SHOT DURING THE CULPEPER GAME. AFTER GETTING THE REBOUND, HE WAS PUSHED OUT OF BOUNDS, BUT HE MANAGED TO PASS THE BALL AWAY TO A TEAMMATE, AVOIDING THE TURNOVER.

"We started off kinda slow, but as we spent more time with each other, we've become more like a family and we're keeping it that way."

-Jere Odum, junior

"It takes a lot of teamwork and intensity to play well."

-Jonathan Brucker-Serrano, freshman

"In tough situations, we pull through... together."

-Ivan Stewart, sophomore

"The Freshman team is like a stepping stone to get to Varsity. That's why we're so awesome."

-Danny Tryon, freshman

GOIN' FOR THE TREY. DURING PRACTICE, JV TEAM MEMBER FRESHMAN MELVIN ALLEN SHOOT'S OVER FRESHMAN JASON FLUDD FOR THE TREY. MELVIN, NORMALLY AGGRESSIVE INSIDE WITH THE LAY-UP, TOOK ADVANTAGE OF AN OPEN THREE POINT SHOT. COACHES ENCOURAGED PLAYERS TO LOOK FOR GOOD SCORING OPPORTUNITIES LIKE THE ONE MELVIN FOUND DURING GAMES.

TRY ME. AFTER RECEIVING THE INBOUNDS PASS, FRESHMAN VINCENT HUNT (44) LOOKS TO BEAT CULPEPER'S DEFENSIVE TRAP. WHILE THE CULPEPER PLAYERS SET PRESSES AND DOUBLE TRAPS ALL NIGHT LONG, OUR COACHES COUNTERED WITH OFFENSIVE PLAYS HIGH INCLUDED LONG PASSES, PICKS, AND SCREENS. QUICKNESS, BEING ABLE TO GET OT LONG PASS BEFORE DEFENDERS AND DRIBBLE AROUND THEM WAS KEY TO BREAKING THE TRAPS. VINCENT FOUND AN OPEN MAN UNDERNEATH THE BASKET UP COURT, AND HIS AWARENESS LEAD TO AN UNCONTESTED LAY-UP.

HANDY MAN. JUST BEFORE HALF-TIME, SOPHOMORE BRIAN HUNT FILLS PAPER CUPS WITH WATER FOR THE PLAYERS. AT EVERY GAME, YOU COULD SEE BRIAN HELPING THE TEAM IN ANY WAY HE COULD.

ALLEYES ON THE BOARD. DURING A TIME OUT, COACH MR. STEVE EPPS GOES OVER A NEW TACTIC WITH HIS JV TEAM. AT THE TIME, THE TEAM WAS DOWN BY TWO POINTS, BUT FINISHED THE GAME WITH A WIN OVER CULPEPER (83-76).

DESIRE. WITH ONLY GAINING POSSESSION OF THE BALL IN MIND, SOPHOMORE FORWARD JASON NEAL (42) BATTLES TWO CULPEPER DEFENDERS FOR THE REBOUND, WHICH HE WON. PLAYERS WERE SUCCESSFUL BY MAINTAINING "THE CONSTANT DESIRE TO PLAY YOUR POTENTIAL!"

PRIDE. SPLITTING TWO STAFFORD DEFENDERS, SENIOR MAURICE JERRALDS (34) PUTS UP A LAY UP. TEAMMATES CONGRATULATED HIM ON HIS SHOT, FOLLOWING THE BANNER'S ADMONITION TO "TAKE PRIDE IN YOUR TEAMMATES' PERFORMANCE AS WELL AS YOUR OWN!"

INTENSITY. FOLLOWING A REBOUND, SENIOR BRIAN OPASKA (22) DRIVES THE LANE, HAVING BROUGHT THE BALL DOWN THE COURT FROM THE CULPEPER'S OWN GOAL. HIS UNASSISTED BUCKET TYPIFIED HIS PLAY, LACED WITH INTENSITY. BRIAN WAS INSPIRED BY THE BANNER'S ADVICE TO "PLAY EVERY GAME WITH INTENSITY UNMATCHED BY OTHERS!"

HERE IT COMES. IGNORING A CULPEPER DEFENDER, SOPHOMORE KEVIN ROY (24) GETS READY TO PASS THE BALL ON TO A TEAMMATE. PASSING THE BALL FREQUENTLY, KEVIN KEPT DEFENDERS GUESSING AS TO THE TEAM'S NEXT MOVE, CREATING MORE OFFENSIVE OPPORTUNITIES.

"We make sure we have fun by just relaxing and having fun. We just play."

-Kevin Battle, sophomore

"Knowing that we'll be going to get food after the game keeps me on my toes during a game."

-Willie Bookert, junior

"The crowd is great. Even when we're not playin' too great, they still cheer for us and that motivates us even more to keep fighting and win!"

-Daniel Davis, sophomore

"Basketball is a great opportunity to play with my big little brother, Jason, 'cause 'we're family.'"

ON THE MOVE. FRESHMAN MICHELLE BARNES SPRINTS TO COVER HER PLAYER ON THE DEFENSIVE PRESS. MICHELLE WAS ON HER TOES, MOVING TO KEEP THE OPPOSING STAFFORD POINT GUARD FROM MOVING THE BALL UP THE COURT.

PLAYMAKERS.

FRESHMEN ASHLEY BROIN, TEONIKA HUDSON, JENNY FOLKS, HEATHER BONDS, AND LAURA SIMPSON LISTEN TO COACH JIM RALPH DURING A TIME-OUT. TIME-OUTS WERE CRUCIAL DURING CLOSE GAMES--COACH RALPH USED EVERY SECOND OF THE MINUTE ALLOTTED TO SET UP THE LAST FEW PLAYS THE TEAM WOULD RUN, DEFENDING AGAINST POSSIBLE SCORING DRIVES AND LOOKING FOR GOOD SHOTS TO CEMENT THE VICTORY.

HANDS HELD HIGH. SOPHMORE SHAINA SETTLE JUMPS TO BLOCK A SHOT, JUST MISSING THE BALL AS HER NORTH STAFFORD OPPONENT LAUNCHES THE BALL. AT HER GUARD POSITION, SHAINA DEFENDED AGAINST THIS OUTSIDE SHOOTER, PREVENTING HER FROM DRIVING THE LANE AND FORCING HER TO THROW UP A BAD SHOT.

IS MY MOM HERE YET? SOPHMORE AMBERLY TAYLOR AND FRESHMEN BECKY CAMBELL, AMANDA MEADOWS, ERIN WEDERBROOK, LAURA SIMPSON AND MICHELLE BARNES WAIT AFTER PRACTICE FOR THEIR RIDES COMING AT 5:00. FRESHMAN AND JV PLAYERS HUNG OUT TOGETHER READING NOTES AND SHARING SNACKS UNTIL THEY WENT HOME.

On the Scene!

"We're one big family, and we've been through a lot. We're getting better all the time."

-Jenny Folks and Ashley Broin, freshmen

"They are a great bunch of girls, and I enjoy coaching them very much. Half of them are crippled, but they are very, very hard workers. They have to be."

-Coach Jim Ralph, Freshman coach

"This is my first year playing at Brooke Point, but it feels like our team has been playing together forever."

-Jennifer Pless, freshman

"Coach Bishop works us hard... We gotta do good in games or we'll run, and nobody wants to run!"

-Amberly Taylor, sophomore

TYING IT TIGHT.

SOPHMORE TRACIE WOLFF LACES UP AN ANKLE BRACE ON HER RIGHT FOOT. HAVING SPRAINED HER ANKLE FOUR TIMES, TRACIE KNEW THE BRACE WAS KEY TO STAYING HEALTHY. WITH GUT DETERMINATION TO PLAY THROUGH ANY PAIN, TRACIE WAS A LEADER ON THE COURT.

THANKS VERY MUCH. FRESHMAN AMY CARRIE RELUCTANTLY HANDS THE BALL BACK TO THE REFEREE. HE CALLED A SHOOTING FOUL ON HER FOR BLOCKING AN OPPOSING INDIAN PLAYER'S FAST BREAK LAYUP. FRESHMAN SARA EBERHARDT AND SOPHOMORE SHAINA SETTLE WALKED AWAY TO LINE UP ON THE FOUL LINE.

On the Scene!

"This year we're really trying to concentrate on the "team" aspect. By spending time with each other on and off the floor the team had become sort-of like a family."

Leslie Lanata, junior

"Our team is hard working and we're getting better with every game. The biggest thing that helped us was the very competitive Woodbrige Tournament that prepared us for our District Games."

Mr. Mike Cullen, Head Coach

"We have a wonderful group of girls that have the desire to win. With every game, we improve and come closer to our district Championship."

Marne Mclyman, junior

IT'S IN THE DETAILS.

JUNIOR CHRYSTAL ZORICH (10) WIPES THE SOLE OF HER BASKETBALL SHOE WHILE WAITING FOR THE ACTION TO START AGAIN. TEAM MEMBERS CLEANED THEIR SHOES OF DEBRIS TO INCREASE TRACTION, LESSENING THE POSSIBILITY OF SLIPPING ON THE SLICK COURT'S SURFACE.

GET OPEN. JUNIOR LESLIE LANATA (20) LOOKS FOR AN OPEN TEAM MATE ON THE INBOUNDS PASS. LESLIE HAD FIVE SECONDS TO PASS THE BALL IN BEFORE BEING PENALIZED, AND SHE GOT IT AWAY JUST AFTER THE REFEREE HAD COUNTED TO FOUR SECONDS!

PUT IT UP. JUNIOR MICHELLE BREEDEN (54) SHOOTS TWO THROUGH HER CHANCELLOR DEFENDERS. MICHELLE, AGGRESSIVE ON OFFENSE, WAS NEVER AFRAID TO TAKE IT TO HER OPPONENTS IN THE HALF-COURT GAME.

PUT ME IN COACH. JUNIORS MICHELLE BREEDEN (54), CHRYSTAL ZORICH (10), MARNE MCCLYMAN (42), CASSY PINGREE (44), AND SOPHMORE WENDY RAY (32) WATCH THE GAME WHILE WAITING TO BE PUT BACK IN. PLAYERS USED THE TIME ON THE BENCH TO EVALUATE THEIR PERFORMANCE, SEEK ADVICE FROM THE COACHES, AND CHEER ON TEAMMATES.

I'VE FALLEN AND I CAN'T GET UP. JUNIOR CHRYSTAL ZORICH (10) RECOVERS AFTER BEING KNOCKED DOWN WHILE TAKING A SHOT. HER CHARGER OPPONENT WAS PENALIZED WITH A PERSONAL FOUL.

IN YOUR FACE! SOPHOMORE JESS CONSTATINE (14) BLOCKS HER STAFFORD INDIAN OPPONENT'S SHOT. JESS' AGGRESSIVE DEFENSIVE SKILLS LIMITED STAFFORD'S SCORING, KEEPING HER TEAM IN THE GAME.

I'M OPEN! THERE'S A PLAY RUN BY THE GIRL'S BASKETBALL TEAM CALLED THE "GIVE AND GO," WHERE ONE TEAMMATE PASSES THE BALL THEN GETS OPEN FOR A SHOT. SOPHOMORE WENDY RAY (32), HERE RUNNING THE "GIVE AND GO," HAS GOTTEN INTO SCORING POSITION. ALTHOUGH SHE LOOKED FOR THE RETURN PASS, HER DEFENDER STAYED WITH HER, SO THE BALL WAS PASSED ELSEWHERE, AND WENDY MOVED INTO GET THE REBOUND.

WITH THE GREATEST OF EASE. FRESHMAN AMY BECKER SWINGS THROUGH THE AIR DURING HER BAR ROUTINE AT THE NORTH STAFFORD/STAFFORD MEET. AMY USED A DIFFICULT ROUTINE TO TRY AND BEAT THE ALL-AROUND COMPETITION SCHOOL RECORD OF 36.95 WHICH SHE HAD ALREADY SET AT THE PREVIOUS MEET.

STICK IT! JUNIOR CARRIE LARSON GETS HER BALANCE AFTER HER VAULT ROUTINE AT THE NORTH STAFFORD MEET ON JANUARY 16TH WHILE COACH JO EMBREY CHEERS HER ON. LOSS OF BALANCE AFTER A DISMOUNT WOULD RESULT IN A LOWER SCORE FOR GYMNASTS.

DOWN AND DIRTY.

FRESHMEN AMY BECKER AND TYPHENA STULL PUT CHALK ON THEIR HANDS IN PREPARATION FOR BARS. AMY AND TYPHENA USED CHALK TO HELP KEEP THEIR HANDS FROM BECOMING SLICK, REDUCING THE RISK OF SLIPPING OFF THE BARS DURING A COMPETITION.

"the best thing is working with the same people that I had in middle school."

-Mrs. Mary Catherine Hornung, Assistant Coach

"In our first meet I was the line leader and had no idea where to go... and I kept walking out of line. I was so embarrassed!"

-Mimi Liddell, freshman

"While doing a back extension on the beam, I was wearing lion paws and the velcro got stuck in my hair. I ended up ripping out a chunk of my hair, and when I landed the velcro was still attached to my head!"

-Emily McNabb, Junior

"Gymnastics is different in the United States from Germany because the practices are harder and the teams here are much better."

I CAN DO THIS. AFTER SCHOOL, MELISSA CRISMOND PRACTICES ON THE UNEVEN BARS, WORKING ON CREATIVE AND DIFFICULT MOVES TO INCREASE HER SCORE AT UPCOMING MEETS. PRACTICE ROOM WAS LIMITED BECAUSE THEY HAD TO SHARE THE AUXILLIARY GYM WITH THE WRESTLERS.

JUST CHILLIN'.

SENIOR SONYA ROTTLE AND JUNIOR MELISSA CRISMOND WATCH THEIR PAST ROUTINES, HOPING TO LEARN HOW TO INCREASE THEIR SCORES BY ELIMINATING MISTAKES. THIS WAS A LEARNING EXPERIENCE FOR THE GYMNASTS, AS WELL AS A TIME FOR TEAMMATES TO RELAX AND HANG OUT TOGETHER BEFORE MEETS.

POPRUN. FRESHMAN ASHLEIGH LANGHORN GETS A SODA FROM HER TEAM LOCKER. DURING PRACTICE FROM 2:30 TO 5:00 BEFORE THE JANUARY 16TH MEET, ASHLEIGH SAID SHE HAD "WORKED UP A THIRST."

STANDING TALL. JUNIOR EMILY McNABB CONCENTRATES ON HER NEXT MOVE ON THE BEAM. THE FOUR INCH WIDTH OF THE BEAM REQUIRED INCREDIBLE BALANCE, MAKING THIS A CHALLENGING EVENT FOR EMILY.

HEY, LEGGO! JUNIOR JUSTIS HEISLER PERFORMS A SINGLE LEG TAKE DOWN ON SENIOR KHAL KING DURING PRACTICE AFTER SCHOOL IN THE AUXILIARY GYM. KHAL GOT HIS LEG CAUGHT IN JUSTIS' GYM SHORTS, AND HE FELL TO THE MAT.

GOING FOR THE PIN. FRESHMAN HEAVYWEIGHT LANE ZEDDY ROLLS HIS OCEAN SIDE OPPONENT ONTO HIS SHOULDERS AT THE BROOKE POINT INVITATIONAL. PUTTING YOUR OPPONENT ON HIS SHOULDER BLADES RESULTED IN A PIN--HERE, LANE PINNED HIS OPPONENT IN ONE MINUTE AND SEVENTEEN SECONDS.

FACE OFF. SENIOR LANE MAJOR GETS BELOW HIS STAFFORD OPPONENT'S CENTER OF GRAVITY, SETTING HIM UP FOR A TAKEDOWN. GETTING BELOW AN OPPONENT MADE IT EASIER TO GET HIM OFF HIS FEET. LANE WON THIS INDIVIDUAL MATCH, CONTRIBUTING TO AN OVERALL TEAM VICTORY.

BUCKLE UP. ASSISTANT COACH GERALD BROOKS PUTS FRESHMAN JEFF WILLS INTO A "HEADS-UP STRAP" TO CORRECT HIS TENDENCY TO PUT HIS HEAD DOWN WHILE IN A SHOOTING POSITION, THE POSITION WHERE WRESTLERS LUNGE FORWARD AND ATTACK THEIR OPPONENTS. JEFF'S COMMITMENT TO TRAINING AT PRACTICES HELPED HIM MOVE UP TO THE VARSITY TEAM IN THE MIDDLE OF THE SEASON.

WAX ON, WAX OFF. SOHOMORE TIM FOLEY WORKS AGAINST THE FITNESS BANDS, BUILDING STRENGTH AND ENDURANCE IN AN EXERCISE CALLED A "STAND-UP." FITNESS BANDS WERE BUNGEE CORDS ATTACHED TO THE FLOOR WHICH PROVIDED RESISTANCE WHILE WRESTLERS REPEATED VARIOUS TAKE-DOWN MOVES.

"The thing that I love the most about wrestling is the adrenaline rush of pinning your opponent."

-Jason Sams, junior

"The worst thing about cutting weight is watching all the other fat slobs eat at lunch."

-Jeff Pradham, sophomore

"No sport asks as much as wrestling, and no other sport makes you a better man."

-Bucky Garrett, senior

READY TO GO. CROUCHING IN CLOSE TO THE WALL, JUNIOR CURTIS CHATFIELD GETS READY TO SWIM THE BACKSTROKE AT PRACTICE. CURTIS CONSIDERED THE BACKSTROKE "ONE OF THE MOST DIFFICULT STROKES IN SWIMMING—YOU HAVE TO GET USED TO IT." CURTIS' DEDICATION IN PRACTICE, ALONG WITH HIS TEAM'S DETERMINATION TO MAKE THIS THE BEST YEAR LED THEM TO A DISTRICT TITLE. COACH MIKE VANDERBURG SAID, "THIS HAS BEEN AN INCREDIBLY SUCCESSFUL YEAR WITH A SUPER GROUP OF KIDS WHO GIVE ALL THEY HAVE WHETHER IT'S AT PRACTICE OR DURING MEETS. I'M REALLY PROUD OF ALL OF THEM."

WHOO WHOO! AS FRESHMAN JENNY COWAN COMPLETES HER ANCHOR LEG OF THE GIRLS' 400 RELAY AGAINST OSBOURNE PARK AT THE FREDERICKSBURG YMCA, TEAMMATES SENIOR GERALYN TRUJILLO, FRESHMAN KATIE HAMM AND SENIOR SARAH ANGEL CHEER HER ON TO THE FINISH LINE. SWIMMERS DISPLAYED TEAM SPIRIT DURING MEETS AND PRACTICES, CHEERING EACH OTHER ON TO AN EVENTUAL DISTRICT TITLE.

FISH IN FLIGHT? CONCENTRATING ON THE FINISH LINE, SENIOR ADAM CAMPBELL "FLIES" OUT OF THE WATER TO GET ENOUGH AIR TO COMPLETE HIS 200M BUTTERFLY RACE. SWIMMERS HAD TO LEARN WHEN IT WAS MOST ADVANTAGEOUS TO BREATHE IN CLOSE COMPETITION. ADAM'S STRATEGY LANDED HIM IN SECOND PLACE AGAINST OSBOURNE PARK.

On the Scene!

"Swimming is great fun. I mean, it's what I love to do. The spirit on our team is awesome--we have the best cheers to get us going!"

-Patrick McGiff, senior

"I love swimming because it gives me big muscles, and in the summer I look good!"

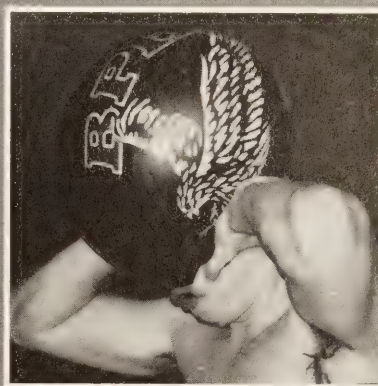

-Sarah Angel, senior

"I sing a really cool Rage song in my head when I'm on the starting block 'cause it gets me pumped up."

-Kevin Graham, freshman

"This year has quite simply been spectacular! We've got the biggest team ever, the fastest times, outstanding spirit and sportsmanship, and to top it off, a beautiful new pool! It is the best year ever!"

-Coach Mike Vanderburg

HAT TRICK! AFTER PRACTICE, SENIOR ELI LINTHICUM INFLATES HIS SWIM CAP WITH HIS NOSE TO AMUSE HIS TEAMMATES. ELI'S CAP TRICK NEVER CEASED TO AMUSE HIS TEAMMATES FOR EVERY TIME HE PERFORMED IT, THERE WAS ALWAYS LAUGHTER IN THE MUFFLED AIR OF THE POOL'S BUBBLE.

DONE DEAL. EMERGING FROM THE WATER DURING PRACTICE, SENIOR BRIAN RHOADES COMPLETES THE FINAL LAP OF HIS BREASTSTROKE. PRACTICES WERE HELD AT A NEW TIME AND LOCATION THIS YEAR; THEY WERE HELD FROM 2:30 UNTIL 5:00 PM AT WOODLANDS POOL IN PARK RIDGE. DURING WARMUP SWIMS, BRIAN DIDN'T NEED TO WEAR HIS TIME-ENHANCING SWIM CAP.

"When we threw our shots, we could not always find them because they were buried in the mud and snow."

-Mike Cannon, junior

"Winter Track motivates you to stay focused during the long, blah winter months. It adds that extra element--frostbite!"

-Kelly Hannon, senior

"I love snow but it was always snowing the night before we had a meet scheduled, and they were always cancelled."

-Ronnie Downey, sophomore

"It stinks that we have no meets--it's like Mission Impossible just trying to run!"

-Phillip Agee, sophomore

MOVING AHEAD.

LEADING THE PACK, SENIOR KEITH DAVIDSON AND JUNIOR KEITH CASSIDY HIT THE STRAIGHTAWAY AT THE DISTRICT TRACK MEET WHILE RUNNING THE 800 METER RACE. AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE MEET, THE TEAM STARTED A SNOWBALL FIGHT WITH COUNTY RIVAL STAFFORD!

FRIENDLY RIVALS. SOPHOMORE MONIC SHAFER TAKES AN OPPORUNTIIY BETWEEN HER 4 X 200 RELAY AND HER 4 X 400 RELAY RACES TO CATCH UP WITH A FRIEND FROM CHURCH, NORTH STAFFORD 4 X 800 RELAY RUNNER KONA DANIELS. MONIC MET KONA WHEN SHE MOVED INTO THE AREA TWO YEARS AGO.

TAKE FIVE. SOPHOMORES JERMAINE KENDALL, MONIC SCHAFER, AND ERIC BRAXTON GRAB A QUICK HANDFUL OF ANIMAL CRACKERS DURING A BREAK BETWEEN RACES--FRESHMAN RAYGAN LUDWIG HAD BROUGHT A LARGE BAG OF ANIMAL CRACKERS TO THE MEET. BESIDES REENERGIZING FOR THE NEXT HEAT, JERMAINE, ERIC, AND MONIC SAID THEY "ENJOYED THE FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN TEAMMATES."

CAT NAP! AFTER A LONG, COLD DAY AT THE DISTRICT MEET HELD AT STAFFORD HIGH SCHOOL, SOPHOMORE PHILLIP AGEE CATCHES SOME ZZZ'S. PHILLIP AND OTHER WINTER TRACK TEAM MEMBERS BROUGHT BLANKETS AND MULTIPLE LAYERS OF CLOTHES IN AN EFFORT TO COMBAT THE BITTER WIND CHILL--NEAR 0 DEGREEES!--BETWEEN EVENTS.

HOW'D I DO COACH? AFTER GETTING THEIR TIMES, SENIOR SCOTT ROONEY AND JUNIOR KEITH CASSIDY DISCUSS THE OUTCOME OF THEIR RACE WITH COACH KRISTEN KNOTT. SCOTT PLACED SECOND IN THE DISTRICT FOR THE MILE RUN.

UP AND AWAY! PLAYING AROUND AT PRACTICE, JUNIOR KEITH CASSIDY LAUNCHES A SHOT PUT. KEITH, WHO RAN TRACK, WAS TRYING HIS HAND AT THE FIELD EVENTS, HOPING TO "SEE HOW FAR I COULD THROW THAT THING."

THE TRAINING SHE HAD DURING CROSS COUNTRY SEASON KEPT HER CONDITIONED FOR THE WINTER TRACK SEASON. EMILY AND HER TWO MILE RELAY TEAMMATES QUALIFIED FOR REGIONALS AT THE DISTRICT MEET.

RUNNERS READY? PUSHING AGAINST HIS STARTING BLOCK, SOPHOMORE JASON ROSS PREPARES FOR A TRIAL RUN. HE PRACTICED PUSHING OFF THE BLOCK TO OBTAIN HIS MAXIMUM STARTING VELOCITY. BEING FIRST OFF THE BLOCKS COULD BE THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN VICTORY OR DEFEAT WHEN RUNNERS SPRINT FOR A MATTER OF SECONDS.

OVER THE TOP. PRACTICING HER FORM, FRESHMAN AMY BECKER RACES OVER THE FIRST IN A SERIES OF HURDLES. AT THIS PARTICULAR PRACTICE, AMY WAS ONE OF THE FEW TEAM MEMBERS WHO SUCCESSFULLY LEAPED EVERY HURDLE.

ONE, TWO, THREE, JUMP.

DURING A WARM AFTERNOON PRACTICE, SENIOR DARYL LUCAS PERFECTS HIS TRIPLE JUMP. BEFORE TAKING THE LEAP INTO THE SANDPIT, DARYL CAREFULLY MARKED HIS STARTING POINT. HAVING DONE THAT, HE KNEW EXACTLY WHERE TO START TO MAXIMIZE HIS JUMPING DISTANCE.

"I like the long jump the best because I'm a sprinter and it has the shortest running distance."

-Will Bruner, junior

"The 4 x 100 relay is my favorite; it feels like we have our own team and we work together really well."

-Alberto Williams, junior

READY, AIM... DURING PRACTICE, SENIOR CHRIS TAYLOR KEEPS AN EYE ON THE BALL AS HE PREPARES TO PRACTICE HIS BACKHAND AGAINST HIS PARTNER ACROSS THE COURT. PLAYING PRACTICE MATCHES AGAINST TEAM MEMBERS GAVE PLAYERS A CHANCE TO EXPERIENCE "MATCH-ACTION" AS WELL AS AN OPPORTUNITY TO IMPROVE ALL TECHNIQUES.

HERE IT COMES. ARMS RAISED IN THE AIR, SOPHOMORE NICK BARTICK PREPARES TO SERVE THE BALL TO WAITING OPPONENTS FROM CULPEPER AS HIS PARTNER JUNIOR JOSH MILLS WAITS FOR FURTHER ACTION FROM THEIR OPPOSITION. TO IMPROVE HIS OVERALL TENNIS PROWESS, NICK ALSO TOOK PRIVATE LESSONS AS DID OTHERS ON THE TEAM.

A FIRST TIME FOR EVERYTHING. BEFORE TRYOUTS BEGAN, COACH DOM DeMARIA ROLLS UP THE NET THAT HE HAD JUST REPLACED DUE TO A BROKEN CABLE. "COACH D" SAID THAT THIS WAS THE FIRST REPLACEMENT OF ITS KIND IN THE HISTORY OF OUR SCHOOL.

"We wear long knee length white socks because it sets us apart from everyone else."

HEY BATTER, BATTER. JUNIOR HAYDEN GARDNER GETS HIS SIGNAL FROM COACH HOWARD HELMS BEFORE BATTING. HAYDEN HAS PLAYED BASEBALL SINCE HE WAS IN EIGHTH GRADE; EIGHT GRADERS FROM STAFFORD MIDDLE SCHOOL CAN TRY OUT FOR JV BASEBALL SINCE THERE IS NO BASEBALL AT THEIR SCHOOL.

Instant Replay!

"Despite the fact that we had a young team we focused on building a stronger program."

-Shawn Pletz, senior

"To get things done we all have to work together in practice and out on the field."

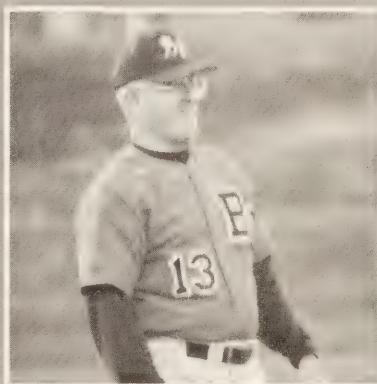

-Mark Miller, sophomore

"No matter rain or shine we practiced everyday, I think that has helped us a lot in our game."

-Gabe Miccio, freshman

"I think our strong leadership and teamwork lead to our success throughout the season."

-Ben Pletz, sophomore

WATCHING OUT.

COACH HOWARD HELMS STEPS BACK AFTER INSTRUCTING A BATTER ON THE NEXT PLAY. COACH HELMS HAS BEEN THE VARSITY BASEBALL COACH FOR FOUR YEARS AND HAS COACHED A DISTRICT WINNING TEAM.

GET BACK HERE BUSTER! SHOWING HIS DEFENSIVE SKILLS SENIOR SHAWN O'CONNOR GUARDS FIRST BASE. SHAWN HAS BEEN ON THE VARSITY TEAM AND RECEIVED AN ATHLETIC LETTER FOR TWO YEARS IN A ROW.

HIT AND RUN! SENIOR SHAWN PLETZ HEADS FOR HOME PLATE TO LEAD THE HAWKS TO A VICTORY OVER STAFFORD. THE VARSITY TEAM ENDED THE GAME WITH A 10-1 VICTORY OVER THE INDIANS.

-Rose Hamm, senior

"Sliding is my favorite part of Softball because you can get dirty."
-Laura Simpson, freshman

"Looking back on the past four seasons, this Varsity team has only grown with each coming season. One thing that has managed to stay the same is the love of the game and the team spirit."
-Amy Vassallo, senior

BEEN HERE DONE THAT. AS SENIOR LISA ZBORILL (11) RELEASES A PITCH AT PRACTICE, CATCHER SENIOR JESSIE WELBORNE (8) REACHES UP TO RECEIVE IT. WORKING TOGETHER WAS NOTHING NEW TO THIS PAIR; THEY PLAYED THEIR RESPECTIVE POSITIONS, AS DID FIVE OTHERS, SINCE THEY WERE FRESHMEN ON THIS VARSITY TEAM

CRACK. AT PRACTICE, FRESHMAN MICHELLE BARNES (10) TAKES A SWING AT A STRIKER. STRIKERS WERE PLACED ALONG THE FENCE AT THE SOFTBALL FIELD AT DIFFERENT HEIGHTS SO PLAYERS COULD PRACTICE BATTING AT VARIOUS PITCHING LEVELS.

"GOOD EYE..." UNDER THE STEADY EYE OF HEAD COACH KAMINSKE, JUNIOR VALERIE MICCIO (12) PULLS HER BAT BACK TO LET A "BALL" GO AT THE FIRST HOME GAME OF THE SEASON VERSUS OSBOURN CITY. AT THE PLATE, PLAYERS HAD TO USE THEIR OWN GOOD JUDGMENT WHEN IT CAME TO SWINGING.

READY FOR MORE PLAY. AFTER A PITCHER-CATCHER CONFERENCE AT THE SCRIMMAGE, SOPHOMORE GINNY STREET (13) LEAVES LAST WORDS OF SUPPORT WITH PITCHER FRESHMAN AMY CAREY (3). AT THIS CONFERENCE, GINNY WENT OVER THE SITUATION WITH AMY AND THEY DISCUSSED HOW TO GET AHEAD WITH THE NEXT BATTER.

HIT ME HOME! SENIOR AMY BAYNE (4) WATCHES THE PITCHER FROM THIRD WHILE SENIOR LISA OAKS (13) GETS READY TO FAKE A BUNT. USING THIS STRATEGY, AMY WAS ABLE TO RUN HOME AND SCORE.

SWEET VICTORY. EIGHTH GRADER AMBER LITTLETON (11) CELEBRATES WITH FELLOW EIGHTH GRADER MIMI COUNS (6) WHO HAD JUST SCORED THE JV TEAM'S SECOND GOAL AGAINST THE COUNTY RIVAL STAFFORD INDIANS. MIMI AND AMBER WERE TWO OF THE FIVE EIGHTH GRADERS FROM STAFFORD MIDDLE THAT MADE THE JV TEAM. THE JV TEAM WON THE GAME 4-0, KICKING OFF A WINNING SEASON FOR THE GIRLS.

FULL SPEED AHEAD. DEFENSIVE CENTER HALFBACK FRESHMAN KATIE WHITE HUSSLES TO GAIN CONTROL OF THE BALL AS IT ROLLS UP THE FIELD OF PLAY DURING THE FIRST HALF OF A HOME GAME AGAINST CHANCELLOR. BALL CONTROL DRILLS PREPARED KATIE FOR THIS GAME SITUATION WHERE GOOD HANDLING WAS ESSENTIAL, AND SPRINTS AND HILLS--RUNNING UP HILLS TO BUILD ENDURANCE, GOT HER READY TO RUN FOR THE LENGTH OF THE FORTY MINUTE HALVES.

I MISSED! SENIOR HEATHER POWELSON (12) SIPES SOME WATER AS THE REST DRIBBLES DOWN HER FACE. JUNIOR ROSIE RABON (18) WAITED BEHIND HEATHER IN LINE, AND SAID, "WATER BREAKS ARE FREQUENT BUT NOT LONG ENOUGH TO QUENCH MY THIRST."

ALONE IN THE NET. AWAITING HIS TURN IN THE NET, FRESHMAN GOALIE MATT MILLER SPITS INTO HIS GLOVES. MATT SHARED THIS POPULAR AND OFTEN PRACTICED ROUTINE WITH SOCCER GOALIES EVERYWHERE; MAKING HIS GLOVES STICKY AND GIVING HIM A BETTER CHANCE TO GRIP THE BALL.

EVERYONE GATHER 'ROUND. JV Boys Soccer coach Mr. Paul Gallagher calls a team meeting at the first practice of the season. The meeting was held to discuss the upcoming season's schedule, team attitudes, and the effort Mr. Gallagher expected.

"POWER KIX." FRESHMAN FULLBACK JEFF SHEELY (13) BRINGS HIS LEG BACK, READY TO STRIKE THE BALL IN ORDER TO "CLEAR" IT OUT OF DEFENSIVE TERRITORY. AS A FULLBACK, JEFF'S PRIMARY JOB WAS TO INTERCEPT THE OPPOSING OFFENSE AND KEEP THE BALL AWAY FROM HIS GOAL. THE JV TEAM'S STRONG DEFENSE LED THEM TO THREE CONSECUTIVE SHUT-OUTS.

CAN'T TOUCH THIS. SENIOR MARKING BACK ERIC HANGE (16) READS THE OPPONENT'S MOVEMENTS, LOOKING TO AVOID THE FAKE-OUT AS HE GOES TO STEAL THE BALL FROM A JAMES MONROE HIGH SCHOOL FORWARD DURING THEIR SCRIMMAGE. ERIC IS IN HIS THIRD YEAR PLAYING SOCCER FOR THE SCHOOL TEAMS, AND HIS SECOND YEAR ON VARSITY.

"MAN ON." IN A SCRIMMAGE BETWEEN THE JV AND VARSITY BOYS SOCCER TEAMS, CENTER HALFBACK TIM TRYON (10) AND DEFENSIVE HALFBACK DANNY BRUSH (7) BATTLE IT OUT FOR THE BALL. WHILE TIM AND DANNY WERE TWO OUT OF THE THREE SOPHOMORES ON THE VARSITY TEAM, IN THIS CASE THEY WERE NOT ON THE SAME SCRIMMAGE TEAM.

"Since I am a senior, I want the team to do well, and I think we can achieve that."

-Jr Sheets, senior

"If the team continues to improve and stay focused, we could be a District threat!!"

-Eric Garcia, junior

"The early season jumping jacks paid off late in the season when we started to get fatigued."

-Kevin Rooney, sophomore

"The practices are fun--since the beginning of the season, I feel like I have become brothers with my teammates."

BALANCING ACT. DURING PRACTICE JUNIOR JOE WALKER (9) CRADLES THE BALL, COMBINING BALANCE WITH STRENGTH, ATTRIBUTES JOE ALSO LEARNED IN BALLET CLASS, WHICH MANY ATHLETES TOOK TO IMPROVE THESE SKILLS. JOE LATER COMMENTED, "I LOVE LACROSSE. IT'S ALMOST AS MUCH FUN AS BALLET!"

LISTEN UP. COACH FRED DONAHOE AND ASSISTANT COACH NICK KENNEDY ADDRESS THE TEAM DURING HALF TIME OF THE NORTH STAFFORD GAME. AT MOMENTS LIKE THIS, DURING CLOSE GAMES, PLAYERS LOOKED TO COACH DONAHOE, A MEMBER OF THE PENN STATE UNIVERSITY ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME, FOR INSPIRATION.

STRETCHING. STANDING IN THE "SENIOR CIRCLE," SENIORS JESSE JORDANS (12) AND DAN MEDINA (10) LEAD QUAD-STRETCHES AT PRACTICE. IT WAS TRADITION FOR THE SENIORS TO LEAD EXERCISES WHILE STANDING IN THE MIDDLE OF THE GROUP OF PLAYERS. HERE, JESSE AND DAN REPEATEDLY ADMONISHED THE GROUP TO COUNT LOUDER AND WORK HARDER IN AN EFFORT TO MOTIVATE THE YOUNGER PLAYERS.

HIGH FIVE. BEFORE RETURNING TO THE FIELD AFTER A TIME OUT, THE LACROSSE TEAM PLAYERS RAISE THEIR STICKS IN THE AIR AS A SYMBOL OF TEAM UNITY. THE TEAM LOST A CLOSE GAME AGAINST GARFIELD, BUT JUNIOR JOHN COLE (34) SAID, "WE PLAYED A GOOD GAME, AND WE SHOWED A LOT OF IMPROVEMENT, COMING TOGETHER AS A TEAM!"

GOAL On the Scene!

"Lacrosse really shows who the real athletes are because it takes a tremendous amount of skill just to be able to catch and throw the ball."

- Coach Fred Donahoe

"Lacrosse isn't that well know yet, but it's growing all over Virginia."

- Scott Nelson, senior

"It takes a lot of skill patience and coordination."

- Tom Liddiard, senior

"Lacrosse, which means Little Brother of War, was originally a sport played by the Native Americans to prepare for war. That is why it's so violent."

-Chris Lerch, junior

LACROSSE OR FOOTBALL? SENIORS THOMAS PETERS AND JOSH REED CHARGE INTO EACH OTHER DURING PRACTICE TO GET FIRED UP. THE ENTIRE LACROSSE TEAM AGREED THAT THOMAS WAS THE "SPIRIT OF THE TEAM," AND JUNIOR PAT ESSIG SAID HE WAS "KIND OF PSYCHO."

WHERE IS IT? SOPHOMORES CHRIS EDDY (49) AND JUNIOR MATT SMOCK (54) SEARCH FOR THE GROUND BALL BENEATH THEIR FEET AS JUNIOR PAT ESSIG (27) AND SENIOR JOSH REED (34) WAIT BEHIND. SENIOR JESSE JORDANS (12) COMMENTED, "GROUND BALLS ARE NOT FUN TO PRACTICE, BUT WE HAVE TO. THEY'RE HALF THE GAME."

-Kassia Miller, sophomore

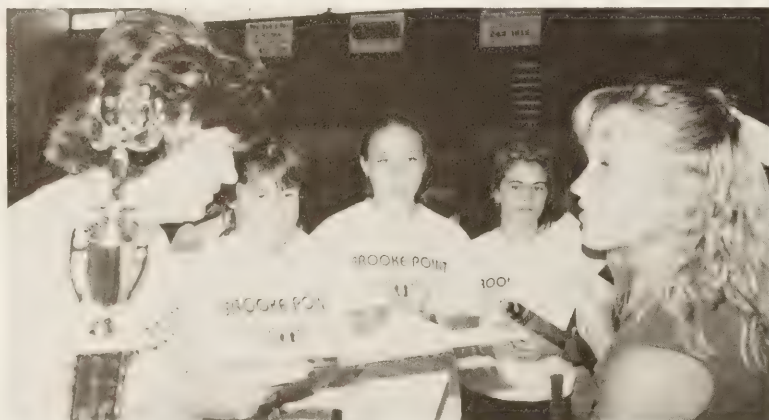

"During games, you get such a rush, you don't even realize that you just did something really, really dumb!"

-Megan Wagner, freshman

HEY, GO HAWKS! JUNIOR MELISSA CRISMON GETS THE CROWD CHEERING WITH HER DURING A SPIRIT CHANT AT THE HOMECOMING PEP RALLY. AS TEAM CO-CAPTAIN, MELISSA KEPT THE CROWD'S SPIRIT UP, GIVING THEIR SUPPORT FOR THE TEAMS BEING ANNOUNCED, AND SHE HAD TO MAKE SURE HER JV SQUAD WAS ENTHUSIASTIC AS WELL.

HOW'D WE DO? SOPHOMORES JULIE ALLEN, BRANDI SIMS, AND RACHAEL DEALY WATCH AS A CAMP INSTRUCTOR HANDS COACH KIM DIXON THE COMPETITION SCORES AT SUMMER CHEERLEADING CAMP. THE DIFFERENT SCHOOLS AT CAMP COMPETED ON THE LAST DAY, AND THE JV SQUAD WON THE "CHAMPION CHANT" AWARD FOR HAVING THE BEST CROWD INVOLVEMENT.

WITH OPEN ARMS. AT HALF-TIME DURING THE JV GIRLS' BASKETBALL GAME AGAINST STAFFORD, SOPHOMORES JILL WAGNER, DIANA MILLER, TORI LIEDEL, AND ALAINA BOWLING HIT THE LAST MOTION OF THEIR CHEER. IN ORDER TO END THE CHEER AT THE SAME TIME, CHEERLEADERS SAID "MICKEY MOUSE HAS BIG EARS" IN THEIR HEADS-- WHEN THEY WERE DONE, THEY "SHOWED SPIRIT" BY JUMPING, TUMBLING, AND CHEERING.

HEADS UP! HAVING SOARED TO THE TOP OF THE "ELEVATOR," SOPHOMORE LAURA BACHMANN REACHES FOR SOPHOMORE BRANDI SIMS AND JUNIOR MELISSA CRISMON AS SHE PREPARES TO COME BACK DOWN TO EARTH. FOR SAFETY, SPOTTER SOPHOMORE JULIE ALLEN, WAS READY TO CATCH HER IF SHE FELL.

ANYBODY GOT A RAZOR? SOPHOMORE LAURA BACHMANN READIES A CAN OF SHAVING CREAM, LOOKING FOR REVENGE. AT SUMMER CAMP, IT WAS A TRADITION FOR THE VARSITY CHEERLEADERS TO ATTACK THE JV SQUAD!

RACHAEL DEALY HELD THE STUNT IN PLACE BY SUPPORTING KASSIA AND DIANA'S WRISTS, A NECESSARY COMPONENT OF THE STUNT AS THE ELEVATOR REQUIRED TREMENDOUS STRENGTH AND TRUST BETWEEN TEAMMATES.

GO! FIGHT! WIN! AT THE BASKETBALL DOUBLEHEADER AGAINST STAFFORD HIGH SCHOOL, THE SQUAD GETS THE CROWD INVOLVED IN A CHEER. AS CHEERLEADERS, THEIR PRIMARY JOB WAS TO ENCOURAGE CROWD INVOLVEMENT, STRESSING SCHOOL SPIRIT AND SUPPORT.

PEP TALK. COACH KAREN RUHE GOES OVER THE POSITIVE POINTS OF THE SQUAD'S PERFORMANCE DURING THE STAFFORD BASKETBALL GAME. DURING BASKETBALL SEASON, THE SQUAD PERFORMED DURING TIME OUTS AND BETWEEN QUARTERS WHILE PREPARING FOR COMPETITIONS OF THEIR OWN.

STANDING ON AIR!

SENIOR MICHELLE McCONNELL STANDS ATOP SENIOR TRIP REED'S HANDS DURING THE HOMECOMING PEP RALLY. WHEN MICHELLE AND TRIP WERE NOT PERFORMING FOR THE STUDENT BODY, THEY WERE RESPONSIBLE FOR FIRING UP THE SENIOR CLASS DURING THE SPIRIT STICK COMPETITION.

"We work really well together and I look forward to competing."

-Ericka Karr, junior

"I like how through all the hard work we still have time to have fun."

-Tara Nieder, senior

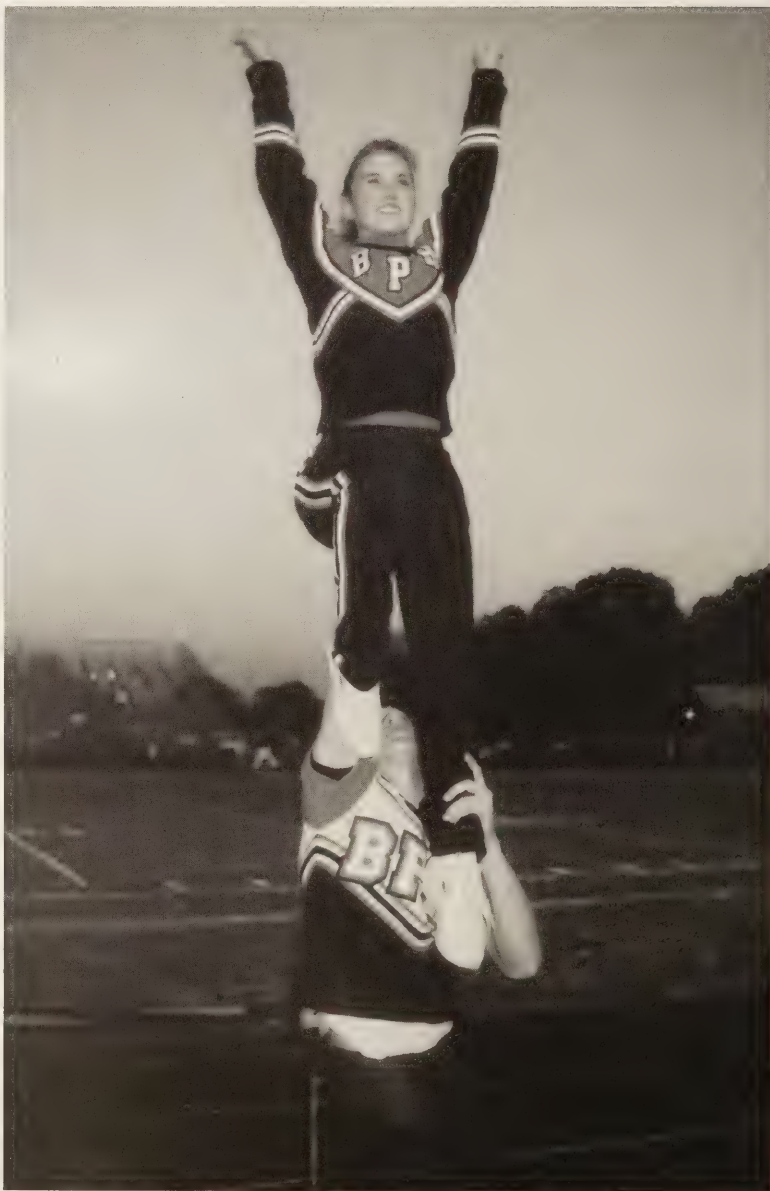

"Cheerleading has come a long way. This year we have looked forward to the first ever Cheerleading Regional and State Competitions. This year our squad has learned to work together as a team."

-Coach Karen Ruhe

"I have had so much fun this year. I don't think anyone will ever forget camp...Junior Initiation Day...or getting down on the ground to help make our voices louder."

BIG SMILES! FRESHMAN NICOLE THOMPSON SMILES BROADLY DURING A PERFORMANCE OF "CLAP YOUR HANDS NOW." FACIAL EXPRESSIONS WERE AN IMPORTANT SCORING ELEMENT AT COMPETITION.

CHOO, CHOO. JUNIOR VARSITY DANCE TEAM MEMBERS FRESHMAN MICHELLE KALKA, MELISSA HOLDER, CARRIE SAUNDERS, NICOLE THOMPSON, AND JAMIE RAVEN DANCE THE "SPIRIT DANCE" TO THE TUNE OF "COME ON' RIDE THAT TRAIN." THE JV AND VARSITY TEAMS JOINED FOR THE FIRST TIME TO PUT ON A SPECIAL PERFORMANCE AT THE PEP RALLY.

"I'M SO HUNGRY!" FRESHMAN JAMIE RAVEN GRABS A SNACK FROM THE LOCAL McDONALD'S BEFORE HER 5:30 DANCE PRACTICE. PRACTICE, USUALLY HELD AT THREE, RAN LATE ON NIGHTS WHEN IT STARTED AT 5:30, AND JAMIE SAID, "I DON'T GET TO GO HOME BEFORE LATE PRACTICES, SO I EAT MY DINNERS AT SCHOOL ON THOSE NIGHTS."

HEAD BANGIN'!

MOVING INTO A NEW TRIANGULAR FORMATION, FRESHMEN ASHLEE REED AND JAMIE RAVENS' HAIR FLYS AS THEY JUMP INTO MOTION. THE GIRLS PERFORMED AT THE VARSITY GIRL'S BASKETBALL DOUBLE-HEADER AGAINST STAFFORD HIGH IN PLACE OF THE VARSITY DANCE TEAM.

"Dance is fun, and it helps keep me in shape."

-Melissa Holder, freshman

"I love my girls, and I feel very fortunate to be asked to be their new coach."

-JV Coach Karen Miller

"Dance is a really good time, and a lot of hard work."

-Amber Ullah, freshman

"I wanted to be captain because I love my teammates, and I also wanted the challenge of tougher leadership responsibilities so I can be ready for Varsity next year."

RIBBONS AND BOWS. JUNIORS TAMMY LESTER AND NIA GIANULIS PERFORM AS PART OF A DANCE TEAM TRIBUTE TO DISNEY'S "POCOHANTAS" DURING THE SENIOR NIGHT GAME AGAINST CULPEPER.

YOU GO GIRLS!

SENIORS JESSIKA BERNARD, JESSIE GOTTA, AND TARA BULLOCK AND JUNIORS JANA MUSGROVE AND JAIME IRICK GET INTO THEIR FUNK ROUTINE, "WE KICKED IT," ACCENTUATING THE DANCE BY CONCENTRATING ON FACIAL EXPRESSIONS AND MAKING SHARP, CRISP MOTIONS. ABOUT THIS PERFORMANCE AT THE NOVEMBER 8TH PEP RALLY, TEAM MEMBER JULIE MILLESON SAID, "WE WANTED THE DANCE TO BE PERFECT SO THE SCHOOL WOULD APPRECIATE THE WORK WE DO!"

WANT SOME BREAD WITH THAT "JAM?" DANCING TO THE FUNK SONG "JAM" IN FRONT OF AN ON-LOOKING CROWD FILLED WITH RIVAL DANCE TEAM MEMBERS FROM NORTH STAFFORD, SENIOR JESSIE GOTTA, JUNIOR JAIME TRICK, AND SENIORS LORI LAWSON AND JESSICA BERNARD STRIKE A POSE. LORI SAID, "WE WANTED TO BE GREAT IN FRONT OF THE NORTH STAFFORD FANS AND TEAM BECAUSE THEY ALWAYS TRY AND COMPETE WITH US, AND BECAUSE MRS. PARISH USED TO COACH THEM."

THRILLER CHILLER! AT THE HOME FOOTBALL GAME AGAINST NORTH STAFFORD JUST BEFORE HALLOWEEN, VARSITY DANCE TEAM MEMBERS WAIT TO PERFORM A "MICHAEL JACKSON MELODY" ROUTINE TO VARIOUS SONGS, INCLUDING A VERSION OF "THRILLER," COMPLETE WITH MONSTERS! AFTER "THRILLER," THE TEAM TOOK OFF THEIR MASKS AND FLANNEL SHIRTS, FINISHING THE DANCE IN SEQUIN VESTS AND JAZZ PANTS.

On the Scene!

"Being the only guy on an all girl's team is tough--especially because I am expected to do everything they can do. But, I am full of confidence and have great support from my teammates, and feel I have done a great job."

-Joner Hall, senior

"I think it is really cool that Varsity is letting freshman on their team this year, because they never have in the past, and I feel very fortunate to be one."

-Sarah Miller, freshman

"Dance team is not easy to be a part of. It takes a lot of hard work and dedication."

-Whitney Williams, senior

IT'S TIME!

Varsity team members Freshman Erin Bayne, Jennie Drew, Sophomore Julie Milleson, Juniors Tammy Lester, Monica Kasey, Kristina Kalka, and Seniors Jennifer Miller, and Tara Bullock and JV coach Mrs. Karen Miller, squeeze through the crowded bleachers to stretch and practice one last time before they perform at the home basketball game against Stafford..

DANCING IN A WINTER WONDERLAND. IN THEIR HOLIDAY ROUTINE, THE VARSITY DANCE TEAM FORMS A KICK-LINE TO THE TUNE OF "JINGLE BELL ROCK." A VARIETY OF CHRISTMAS SONGS, ALONG WITH "WINTRY" COSTUMES, AND SEVERAL DIFFERENT DANCE STYLES WERE INTENDED TO APPEAL TO EVERYONE, BRINGING OUT THE HOLIDAY SPIRIT IN THEIR FANS.

"Marching Band is something that you put your heart, energy, and free time into for a couple of months. What you get in return is a family."
-Virginia Eveland, junior

"The reason I came back to Marching Band is because it taught me discipline and it made me a better musician."
-Chris Allen, sophomore

"After all those hard weeks of learning the music and the drill, you feel like you're on top of the world!"
-Stephanie Stout, sophomore

"To do well in Marching Band, you have to want to do it, and you have to have the desire to succeed."
-Jondra Harmon, senior

UNITED WE STAND. DURING A RARE BREAK AT SUMMER BAND CAMP, THE FULL BAND GATHERS FOR AN "INFORMAL" PORTRAIT. FOLLOWING TRADITION, THE BAND RECEIVED THEIR UNIFORMS IN THE MIDDLE OF THE WEEK DURING BAND CAMP, AND SELF-PROCLAIMED "UNAUTHORIZED BAND PHOTOGRAPHER" MRS. LINDA ANN WILLIAMS GATHERED THE GROUP AS THEY TRIED THEM ON TO TAKE THIS PICTURE. ACCORDING TO MRS. WILLIAMS, "I LIKE TO TAKE PICTURES OF THE BAND DOING VARIOUS THINGS AND GIVE THEM TO THE KIDS AS MEMENTOS OF ALL THE HARD WORK THEY HAVE PUT INTO THIS." PHOTOS ON THIS SPREAD COURTESY OF MRS. WILLIAMS.

ONE MINUTE DRILL! REMAINING AS STILL AS POSSIBLE AT A REHEARSAL AFTER SCHOOL, MARCHING BAND MEMBERS STAND AT ATTENTION WHILE SENIOR MEGAN MCINERNEY, ONE OF TWO DRUM MAJORS, LOOKS ATTENTIVELY FOR ANY MOVEMENT. IN THIS DREADED EXERCISE, STUDENTS HAD TO MAINTAIN THE CORRECT FORM OF ATTENTION (NO FLINCHING!) FOR ONE MINUTE, AND IF ANY ONE MOVED, ANOTHER MINUTE WAS ADDED TO THE TIME REMAINING. THIS EXERCISE TAUGHT AND ENCOURAGED SELF-DISCIPLINE.

QUICK WARM UP. BEFORE THE STATE COMPETITION, VBODA, AT POTOMAC HIGH SCHOOL, MARCHING BAND MEMBERS QUICKLY RUN THROUGH THEIR SHOW MUSIC, WHICH WAS FROM THE POPULAR 70s BAND, "CHICAGO." ALTHOUGH THEY WERE GIVEN ONLY TWO MINUTES TO WARM UP DUE TO A LATE ARRIVAL, THE BAND AND COLOR GUARD PROCURED "EXCELLENT" RATINGS.

ALL MEMBERS OF THE MARCHING BAND LOOKED TO THE DRUM MAJOR FOR THE TEMPO OF THE MUSIC SO THAT EVERYONE WOULD HAVE A COMMON GROUND ON WHICH TO PLAY. SINCE THE PERCUSSION SECTION KEPT THE SONG'S TEMPO FOR THE BAND TO HEAR, IT WAS ESPECIALLY IMPORTANT FOR THEM TO BE KEEPING THE SAME BEAT AS THE DRUM MAJORS.

CANDID CAMERA. JUNIOR MARSHELLE HARRIS AND FRESHMAN JENNIFER AIKEN TALK TO MR. RUDDIE COOPER DURING A BREAK AT PRACTICE. MARSHELLE AND JENNIFER, WHO PRACTICED FROM 2:30 UNTIL 4:00 EVERYDAY DURING THE WEEK BEFORE A BASKETBALL GAME SHOW, USED THIS BREAK TO JOKE AROUND WITH MR. COOPER, THREATENING TO GIVE A BAD PICTURE OF HIM TO THE YEARBOOK STAFF.

TRY THIS. WHILE TEAM MANAGER FRESHMAN MELINDA EDOZIE LOOKS ON, MRS. ANNETTE DAWSON-CLEMENT SHOWS SOPHOMORE JULIE GATSON THE CORRECT FOOTING TO ONE OF THE STEPS DURING TRYOUTS. THE STEP TEAM HELD TWO TRYOUTS, AND TEAM MEMBERS WHO MADE THE FIRST CUT HAD TO PROVE THEY WERE GOOD ENOUGH TO STAY ON THE TEAM DURING THE SECOND TRYOUT.

THINK ABOUT IT.

SENIOR CRYSTAL LUNDY MENTALLY REVIEWS HER PART OF A NEW ROUTINE DURING AN AFTER SCHOOL PRACTICE IN THE CHILD-CARE ROOM WHERE THE TEAM PRACTICED IF THE COMMONS AREA WAS BEING USED. WHEN ASKED, CHRISTAL SAID "MENTAL PREPARATION WAS A BIG PART OF STEPPING."

"The most exciting thing about being on the Step Team is performing really well and getting props for it."

-Tasha Pless, freshman

"I feel we differ from other clubs because we have a lot more rythm."

DECISIONS, DECISIONS. Senior Darcie Callahan decides what color to use for the dress on her group's life size representation of a character from the book, The Canterbury Tales by Geoffrey Chaucer. Darcie's group created the Wife of Bath and then presented her to the class as part of a unit on the famous medieval tales.

SKIMMING FOR THE GOOD STUFF! Senior Jaclyn Phillips reads the Free Lance Star in her seventh period English class. With Mrs. Hornung's "adult approach to learning," Jaclyn read and interpreted newspaper articles, searching for main ideas and details.

"I WIPED MY MOUTH WITH THE BACK OF MY HAND, LIKE THIS." Junior Leslie Lanata portrays the character Babe from the book, Crimes of The Heart, by Beth Henley. During her Oral Communications class, which emphasized the communicating with an audience through the spoken word, Leslie practiced her humorous/dramatic interpretation for an upcoming forensics competition.

"YO! HOOK ME UP WITH A DICTIONARY!" Sophomore Travis Reed copies vocabulary off of the board in Mr. Mike Skirchak's seventh period class. The study of vocabulary was mandatory in all English classes, as the department made the decision to increase student performance on tests, including the SAT's.

PAGE SURFING. Sophomore Amy Otto answers her English worksheets during her seventh period class. Amy was reviewing language usage and laughed at how she used the word see--si.

"I'M GONNA EAT YOU ALL UP." Junior Tasha Darling rehearses for her storytelling event before the Forensics competition. Storytelling was the most popular event among the contestants.

SO YOU SEE? During a mock episode of "Crossfire" in Mr. Gallagher's government class, seniors Jondra Harmon and Chris Cooney question "opponents" seniors Marc Burke and Vince Omondson on the ethical issues surrounding the death penalty. In this forum, students were able to discuss such controversial issues as gun control and legalization of drugs.

NOTES PAY. Junior Matt Smock takes an open note quiz in Mr. Hackett's History class. Mr. Hackett found out if Matt had taken all his notes or not by giving the pop quiz.

OH, I GET IT! Senior Chris Garrett listens as Mrs. Singh explains the homework to him. While Chris said that "Sometimes homework in her class can be difficult," he added that, "she does a really good job of explaining it so we can do it on our own!"

SCREEN SAVER. Working on the library's CD-ROM Tower system, senior Becca Morreno saves information she has found on Infotrak, a news article search service. During her sociology class' visit to the library, Becca was asked to write a ten page paper on any controversial issue and present it to the class.

WHO'S FOR IT? Juniors Hans Riede, Emily Brown, Erika Karr, and Eric Garcia look over and discuss a proposal for a school dance in their SCA study hall. Students in the SCA study hall learned about parliamentary procedures and the organization of student government, as well as gaining some insight, with the help of advisor Mr. Joe Schelzo, into the difficulties of governing.

A+ TEACHER As world geography teacher Mrs. Sullivan explains a map, her students follow on their worksheets. Students in this class said "Mrs. Sullivan helps us understand our work because she's funny." A portion of the school's educational mission emphasizes humor in teaching.

NOTE ME! In his best impersonation of a politician, Senior Glen Shalberg delivers a vote-seeking speech during the "Presidential Elections" in Mrs. Singh's government class. Eric discussed why he was the best candidate, hoping that his peers would elect him President. During these mock elections, students got a look into the electoral process at the same time as the national Presidential elections were taking place.

Does Algebra Amuse You? Calculus Confuse You? Sum Math Musings...

TREE OF KNOWLEDGE Freshman Katie Hamm makes an ornament in Mrs. Bonnie Synder's class. They decorated a "geome-tree" with ornaments made by applying math skills to paper folding.

I'M HERE FOR YOU! Juniors Jon Constantine and Mike Shelton work together on a Math Analysis assignment in Mrs. Helen Schwartz's class. Mrs. Schwartz frequently used group work to augment class lectures.

IT ALL ADDS UP! With calculator in hand, senior Rose Hamm works on her Algebra III assignment during seventh period in Dr. Marlene Lawson's class. Rose finished her work during class, thereby avoiding any math homework for the night!

HOW MANY PAGES?! Freshman Marie Jasso stops by to see Mrs. Charlene Canas after school, not to ask about the latest math problems, but to get the make-up work which she missed when she went to the dentist. Marie had to turn in the assignments she had missed within three days, a school policy!

TIME OUT! Senior Kate Wiechert uses her spare time during a tennis match to begin her Probability and Statistics homework for Mrs. Robin Hayes. Since tennis matches ran late, team members had to take any opportunity to do their homework for the next day.

Famous Brains

1. John Dalton: Created a model of the atom. Forgot about Eve.
2. Gregory Mendel: Developed the theory of heredity. Passed it on to future generations.
3. Marie Curie: Investigated radioactive elements. Had a glowing personality.
4. Louis Pasteur: Discovered penicillin, vaccines, and created pasteurized milk. Had several cattle grazing lands named after him.
5. Albert Einstein: The father of modern science. Had a perpetual bad hair day.

CONCLUSIONS

"The best part of my day is when my group and I get to dissect our cat, Emily."

Michelle Wilson,

What's Your Reaction to That Wacky Science Action?

HOLD ON TIGHT! Junior Bhiney Dhillon removes a crucible containing zinc from the hot plate in chemistry class. To avoid burning his fingers, Bhiney used tongs to remove the crucible.

THAT'S GROSS! Sophomore Jennifer Pruksma looks at the atom pies she made in Biology. The pies were made out of Cool Whip and Toosie Roll lollipops, with the Cool Whip representing the "interior" of the atom and the lollipops representing the various atomic particles. Jennifer then labelled these different parts of the atom.

AND MY CALCULATIONS WERE? Sophomore Heidi Baitis records the results of a lab experiment in Mrs. Lyshers Chemistry class. Heidi kept a lab notebook to write down all the data she collected during experiments. She described this process as part of the "experience of science--collecting information and founding out about things by looking at that information."

STEADY NOW. Senior Melissa Maddox and sophomore Aaron Towne test the nitrogen level of water in the Rappahanock River while on a Geology field trip. Aaron and Melissa used the results from this test to compare the water of the Rappahanock with that of Snowden Pond, thus getting an idea of the effect different environments have on water.

WHAT DO I DO WITH THIS? Junior Lauren Bolin and seniors Emily Ratzel and Michelle Wilson dissect their cat, Emily, in Dual Biology. In this class, taken for both high school and college credit, Lauren, Emily, and Michelle were required to dissect a cat, learning more about the various systems which function in mammals.

STICKIN' IT ALL IN! Freshman Athena Britschgi and sophomore Clint Brown cram for Mr. Lysher's biology exam. Clint said he "used every opportunity to study in class for mid-terms--whenever he would let us."

ANYONE ORDER A PIZZA? Freshman Victor Suh removes atom pizzas from the oven during Biology class. Biology classes used pizzas as atomic models, learning about the various particles of an atom, and then Victor and classmates enjoyed their hard work!

DID YOU GET NUMBER SIX? Sophomore Ana Collinsworth confers with sophomore Brian Hancock in Spanish I. Mr. Beverly said that students could work together on the project where students had to read clues about Christmas songs in Spanish and figure out what the song was, and Ana and Brian took advantage of the time to check each other's answers.

SACEN LA TAREA. Mr. Mark Rice collects homework from students before the start of class. Mr. Rice said, "You always have homework in foreign language because you really have to practice to be good. Of course, some students still try to do the homework as I'm collecting it!"

BUT I DON'T WANNA GO FIRST!

Junior Crystal Baines talks with Ms. Carter about changing numbers for her American Sign Language presentation as Junior James Franklin looks on. In ASL, all communication was visual, and all presentations had to be visual, because no talking was allowed in class.

AND THEN I... Senior Kim Curtis tells Senior Sharon Nowosulowsky her fictional story to prepare herself for her visual presentation. Ms. Carter had the students record their presentations on video so she could watch them later.

FALLING FOR YOU.. Seniors Susan Felthoelter falls on Junior Ryan Winston while playing Twister as Junior Kristina Emerson looks on. Ms. O'Connor used Twister as a teaching aid, helping her students memorize body parts and practice colors in French.

COMEDY CLUB. Seniors Lisa Oaks and Lobianka Cuadrado listen along with junior Wendy Mancure as senior Camilla Zaleski tells a joke in American Sign Language class. While waiting for other students to finish projects in another room, the remaining students passed the time by discussing the day or telling stories in sign language.

SCHOOL DAYS.... Senior Brienne Wagner and junior Brooke Marshall put on a skit about fitting in at school with the help of sophomore Jennifer Rich. They performed this skit in Mr. Spence's French 3 class as a modern version of "The Would Be Gentleman", a play by the French author Moliere which they had gone to see as a class.

HARMFUL IF SWALLOWED. Senior Joey Neal leans on the teacher's computer while waiting to ask a question. Joey had to wait until Mrs. Tez Chambers could help him, so he spent the time looking over her computer.

COMPUTER CLASS CROSSROADS.

Stumped, Junior Mike Frank studies an outline view of his slide presentation. For this particular task, Mike checked his worksheet for helpful suggestions.

COLOR ME CAREFUL Senior Justin Musgrove proofreads his paper before printing the final draft. In Desktop Publishing, Justin used Aldus Pagemaker 5.0 to create color signs and documents, but he had to be careful not to print any mistakes as color printouts were more expensive than black and white ones.

EYES ON THE PRIZE. Seniors Allison Scarce and Jeff Price tackle an assignment on moving presentations in their fourth period Desktop Publishing class. To accomplish complicated tasks, Jeff and Allison needed the latest technology which included Pentium computers won through the Apples for the Students Plus program sponsored by Giant Foods.

TAKIN' CARE OF BUSINESS! Senior Paul Irvin and freshman Kevin Irvin stay after on a Friday afternoon to make up quizzes for Keyboarding Applications. The brothers had recently gotten their interim progress reports, and they, like many students, decided to beef up their grades with a bit of overtime work!

WITH A SMILE. Sophomore Joey Davis gets a little help from Ms. Tez Chambers in the Computer Information Systems class. Joey was working on a spreadsheet application in MS Works 3.0, but he had some trouble separating the columns from the rows!

DEEP IN THOUGHT. Senior John Paul Murphy uses the computer to answer workbook questions for his Desk Top Publishing and Multi-Media Presentations class. While in this class, John acquired computer skills such as creating advertising and business presentations and using the internet to enhance these presentations.

Why Make Business Your Business?

CHECKMATE. Senior Susan Meyer smooths the clay on a king in her chess set. The first assignment in Ms. Annette Clement's Ceramics class for third quarter was the construction of a complete chess board.

MEASURING UP. Measuring the size of her latest drawing, junior Casandra Montemayor matts her work for the Fine Arts Festival. The Fine Arts Festival was held from April 11-12. Artwork from all county schools was displayed.

TURN, TWIST... STAY! Senior Jen Gandy adjusts the easel holding the canvas for an upcoming acrylic painting. In the first and last five minutes of her Art 10 class, Jen set up for, and cleaned up after, her projects.

THE END PRODUCT. Art teacher Mrs. Rita Campbell shows senior Karin Hadlock what the end-product of her current project, a print pillow, should look like. Elements and principles of design were incorporated in a variety of media in the Senior Art 1 class.

RINSE, BLEND, PAINT. Concentrating on her painting, sophomore Julie Elkins continues her study of color theory through her monochromatic painting. These paintings involved the different nuances created by one color mixed with black or white.

Perchance, Would You Postulate on the Positive Points of Performing?

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT. Members of the Freshman Chorus, Lisa Gray, Michelle McLeese and Amanda Hoernig rehearse Bette Midler's "From a Distance" in a practice room for their mid-terms. Although each girl had to sing the song as a solo for the exam, "rehearsing together is more fun!" as Lisa explained.

TOO SHARP. Before the North Stafford Winter Concert, orchestra director Mr. Dave Marshall helps freshman Audrey Norman tune her string bass with a tuner/metronome. Due to their limited sizes, all Stafford County orchestra programs performed together.

FREEZE! During a freeze improvisation in Mrs. Carr's Drama 2 class, junior Mark Walker and sophomore Chad Peterson are caught in the ballerina position that their student director, sophomore Amber Taylor, put them in. The purpose of freeze improv was to induce spontaneity, originality, and creativity in the minds of drama students.

FEELING THE MUSIC. After most band students have put their instruments away, senior Mitch Jackson practices "Bend and Peel," a song that he plays in a student band he's in called "4%." Mitch was just one of many students involved in both band class and outside musical projects.

JAZZ IT UP A BIT. Keeping her eyes focused on her music, senior Kelly Hannon plays "You Snooze, You Lose," during Jazz Band rehearsals. Jazz band provided an alternative to classical and marching music, and Kelly found the opportunity to "play some different types of music--more modern... appealing."

HANNAKAH During class, the Madrigals rehearsed a routine titled "Hannukah" for the fall concert. The concert was "Multi-Culturalism," and the Madrigals performed as the other chorus groups which performed at the Winter Concert. The Madrigals performed selections which reflected various cultures. Celebrations of winter festivals and included several traditional songs sung in their native languages or traditional American songs learned in the languages of students who spoke other languages.

THE UNVEILING OF AUDREY 2. After the 900 pound crate is pried open, juniors Scott Shockey and Kenyon Barnette admire the carnivorous plant from Broadway's "Little Shop of Horrors" which was being put on as a student production. Members of the Technical Drama class, Scott and Kenyon were responsible for all of the technical aspects of production, which included building sets and learning how to maneuver the sizable plant.

WHAT'S THIS THING, ANYWAY? Junior Pat Haffey examines a mouthguard during a wrestling match in the gym while waiting to assist the team in case of an injury. As part of his Sports Medicine class, Pat volunteered as a trainer for the wrestling team, helping to heal the bruises and sprains which the wrestlers got during practices and meets..

EVERYBODY, DO-SI-DO NOW. Freshman Jame Raven and sophomore Ate Atim-Adet learn how to square dance in the auxilliary gym. Not all students were cut out for dancing, though, and Jamie said that she "had to laugh because she felt so incredibly stupid."

THE LEG BONE'S CONNECTED TO THE.... Mr. Dan Dennett shows his Sports Medicine class the kneecap, the only sliding joint in the body, while helping them review for their semester exam. Knowledge of the various joints and bones of the body which were subject to damage during physical activity--and how to avoid such injuries--was the primary focus of the class.

PUMPIN' SOME IRON. Sophomore Kristin Bowman lifts dumbbells in the weight room. Of the many activities available during general gym sessions, Kristin chose to work on her arms by weight training.

SHOOTING HOOPS. Sophomores Tim Tryon, Luke Wederbrook, Geoff Goodall, and Shawn Dayton play knock-out as a post exam review stress reliever. Tim won this round easily.

From Basketball to Badminton, Bandages to Bruises, What Knowledge was Gained Where Sporty Folks Trained?

HARD AT WORK Sophomore Amie Close and junior Mark Walker take notes from the overhead projector in sports medicine. While the class involved a lot of hands on work, Amie said that "there was plenty of book learning in class as well."

WATCH THE BIRDIE! Sophomore Breanna Dietrich serves the shuttlecock to her opponents while her partner, sophomore Matt McClutchy waits for the return. Badminton, boosted by the annual All-Embrey tournament, was extremely popular amongst phys ed students. Breanna and Matt won the game in spite of the fact that the other team had four players!

DISHPAN HANDS. Sophomore Tim Travis washes the dish that he used while preparing food for his midterm exam in his Life Skills class. Each student was assigned a chore as part of the clean-up effort following the exam, and Tim had to do dishes.

SCISSORS SADDY. Junior Naketcha Moore cuts out table decorations during preparations for a breakfast the Life Skills class made for the office staff. Mrs. JoAnne Ralph described the food as "scrumpdillious."

ALMOST FINISHED. While in the kitchens during her Life Skills class, Junior Christina Reed puts the finishing touches on her cookie mix as the oven heats up. The cookies were later given as a gift to the office staff, who unanimously described them as "extra delicious!"

WHERE DOES THIS ONE GO?

Sophomore Tennesha Walker puts back all the food and ingredients into the kitchen store room. While learning to cook was a major focus of the Life Skills class, the class also taught about family life and responsibility. Here, responsibility included making sure the pantry stayed organized, a task Tennesha described as "not quite as fun as cooking."

CAN YOU HEAR IT? While learning how to read a patient's vital signs and check for signs of cardiac problems, Junior Kim Brenner listens to Junior Marika Solhan's heartbeat. Kim and Marika also practiced taking blood pressure and performing C.P.R., hoping to "apply this stuff to our careers."

WHERE'S THE MILK? Wearing a hair cap to prevent hair from getting into his creation, Sophomore Paul Nichols waits for a classmate to get done with the milk so he can finish his cookie mix. In his Life Skills class, Paul learned how to follow directions, how to read a recipe, and how to observe good health procedures while in the kitchen.

IS IT SUPPOSED TO LOOK LIKE THAT?

Junior Nik Zeigler and Senior Tripp Reed beat their eggs and get ready to fry them up. Nik and Tripp were preparing the eggs as their contribution to the class' breakfast which they were giving to the office staff, hoping to, according to Tripp, "make their day a little better."

Extraordinarily Interesting Engineering: A Timeline

1. 1747. The first engineering school is established in France. Generations of future engineering students get depressed just thinking about it.
2. 1790s. Eli Whitney introduces the idea of interchangeable machine parts. Enterprising engineering students start thinking of ways to charge more for them.
3. 1791. Nicholas Leblanc discovers soda, provides new method of caffeine infusion for the aforementioned engineering students.
4. 1914. Synthetic Rubber invented. Safer accommodations now available for former engineering students.
5. 1946. First electronic computer invented, virtually eliminating the need for engineering students.

Technically Speaking, Which Vocational Classes Get Your Motor Running?

GREASE MONKEYS. Junior Randy Sansom holds the light for junior Sam Raymond as he changes a fuel filter in auto mechanics class. With the filter removed, gasoline fumes leaked from the engine, creating a disturbing odor and made it hard for Randy and Sam to work.

BRRRRR. Senior weathermen Jeff Price and Kevin Kline brave the "elements" on a cold December day to bring the latest forecast to the BPHS News audience. The "elements" were actually behind the scenes technicians using computer enhanced graphics to create the illusion that it was snowing on Jeff and Kevin.

THE HOUSE THAT JOHN...AND JAMES BUILT. Senior John Brewster and junior James O'Bryan work on their wood house framing model in Drafting III. Following a set of blueprints they had drawn, John and James built a miniature house frame.. John said this was "one of the more interesting things" that the class did.

WHAT IS THAT? Mr. Ken Heinz shows junior Keith Cassidy a compass consisting of a magnetized nail pushed through a cork which was then placed in a mug of water. The nail, drawn to the magnetic north pole of the earth, was used to settle a dispute Mr. Heinz and Keith were having about the actual direction of north in the classroom. Mr. Heinz, who created the compass, won the argument.

TEAMWORK. Juniors Adam Caughran and Natalie Hamm use a mechanical scribe to construct uniform letters while inking, or making more legible, labels on a mechanical drawing. The scribe, similar to a pantogram, mimicks letters on a stencil-like guide, thus creating a uniform appearance for letters on a drawing. Adam and Natalie needed exact size gothic letters because freehand writing is not acceptable on professional quality mechanical drawings.

"LAY IT OUT STRAIGHT, AMY." Journalism teacher Mr. Pat Broughton talks over the good and bad techniques of layout design with senior Amy Bayne. Layout design was a major part of putting the newspaper together, and the staff varied the design to make the paper more appealing to readers.

SPELL CHECK IT! Sophomore April Alleyn offers some editorial advice to junior Brandi Grey, who was working on a story for the Literary Magazine. April suggested using the computer as a tool, incorporating such features as the Thesaurus and Spell Check to make the story more accurate.

What are the Right Reasons For Writing?

"CAN I ASK YOU A QUICK QUESTION?" Senior Luke Miller interviews sophomore Tammy Roles to fill in a small gap in his story before submitting it that day. To complete his feature, "What I Want for Christmas, Luke interviewed dozens of students and faculty members. His story appeared in the Holiday edition of the Hawkeye.

CRUNCH TIME. With the deadline for Lit. Mag. submission rapidly approaching, junior Matt Kahoury edits the final draft of his fictional story. In his Fiction Writing class, Matt focused on fiction but did write some non-fiction pieces.

JOURNALISTIC INTEGRITY. Junior Heather Murray works on an article about the Interact club for submission to the February issue of the Hawkeye. Heather worked hard to make sure her work was accurate and true because, as advisor Pat Broughton said, "The student-writer is responsible for, and must stand by, every word printed in their story."

HOW ABOUT... Hawkeye Editors-in-Chief Kerrie Chorzempa and Alison Scarce work in the front of the classroom, finalizing layout pages for the February issue. "Kerrie and Alison work hard to make every page not only interesting to read, but also to look at," said Mr. Broughton.

HMMM... Senior Nathan Ludwig reviews his paper, checking the content before submitting it for publication in the Literary Magazine. Even after several days of work on the MacIntosh computers, Nathan was still concerned that his ideas weren't being conveyed clearly, and he was "amazed to find that there could still be mistakes."

CURIOSITY NEVER KILLED THE CAT. While on assignment, junior Kathy Emond peeks into Mrs. Nikki Carr's classroom. "I wanted to see if she was busy before I just walked in and started asking questions," she said.

TWIST AND SHOUT! While developing negatives, sophomore Christine Kalil stirs them in the canister. Doing this every thirty seconds ensured that every negative would get covered with the developing chemicals.

DEEP IN THOUGHT. Sophomore Shavonda Henson pauses to think as she works on her Step Team spread. Each staff member was assigned clubs, sports, and academic areas to cover, and each was responsible for the pictures and text on each of these pages.

FED EX, HERE WE COME! Senior Kylie Cafiero puts the finishing touches on a layout so it can be shipped. When a layout was finalized, it was placed in a deadline envelope, the pictures were labelled, and the envelope was then driven to the Federal Express box on Courthouse Road to be sent to the Josten's publishing plant in North Carolina.

PICTURE PERFECT. After printing a picture, sophomores Alaina Bowling and Julie Milleson review the final product. The yearbook staff had the capability to develop and print their own pictures in their darkroom, known to staff members as "The Cave."

"I wanted to know if a Jell-O Jiggler would get stuck to the ceiling. I dared Carrie to find out... and blamed her when it did stick."

Rosie Rabon,
junior, Editor

"I tried to move closer to the football field by moving down the bleacher steps. However, I was looking through my camera at the time, and I lost my balance and fell... down every step."

Carrie Papajohn,
senior,
Editor-in-Chief

Putting Photojournalism in the Proper Perspective...

TWO'S COMPANY. On a deadline, yearbook Advisor Mrs. Lynn Miller and senior Editor-in-Chief Amber Bowling work on the theme copy, which introduces the book. Every member of the yearbook staff sought advice from the advisors and each other.

THE THREE W'S AND AN H. For her story on the girls' basketball teams, sophomore Stacey Opaska interviews freshman Jennifer Pless (SS) after a game at Stafford. To sharpen interviewing skills at the summer yearbook camp, the staff had the opportunity to interview the U.S. Womens' Olympic Fencing Team.

Photojournalism

ALL RISE. Interact officers Rachel Meece, Dennis Berry and Monica Kasey accept the Interact Rotary banner from the Stafford Rotary Club. Rotary is a international club and no matter where one travel's the yellow and blue flag can be found. In addition to the large banner, smaller banners are given out to any Rotary club that one might visit.

IN DRAG. Senior Kylie Tross introduces North Stafford Jr. Civitans member Shane Roland to the audience at the Miss Chesapeake contest. The contest, an all-male beauty contest where the guys dressed up as women, was held at the Ocean City Jr. Civitans Convention.

WHAT?

Before homecoming, members of the Student Council organized the themes for the "spirit week."

October 4-5

The SCA hosted the homecoming game, parade, and court announcements on Friday as well as the dance on Saturday.

March 6

A committee was setup to celebrate both Multicultural Week and the International Dinner.

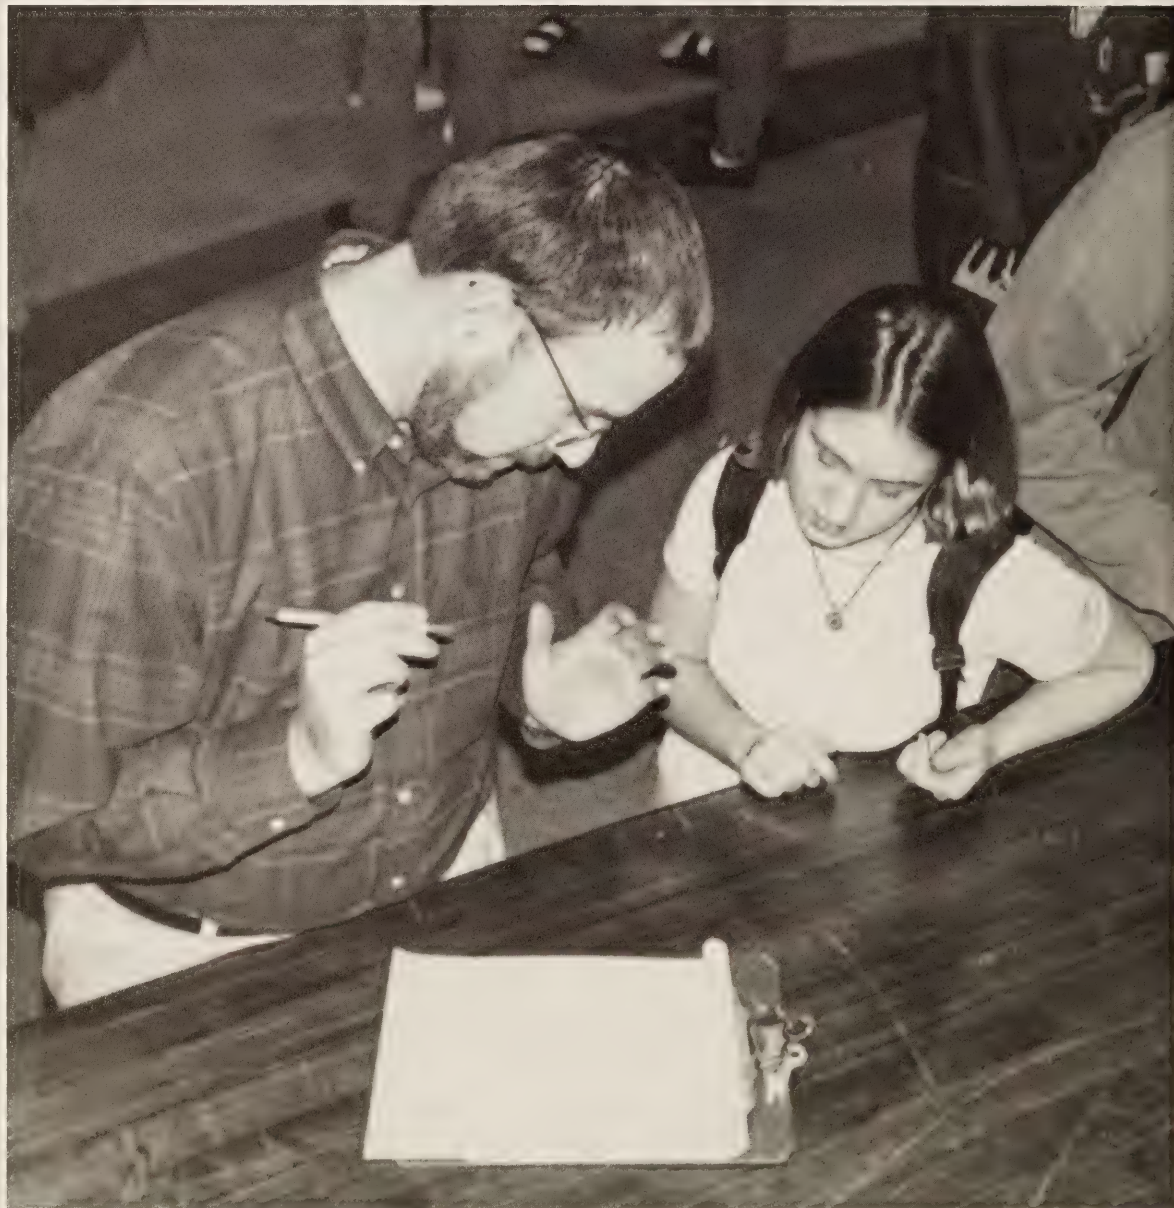

April 18

Members put together and held the yearly Talent Show.

STICKING TO IT. Freshman Chelsey Jones and senior Susan Felhoelter put up decorations before Multicultural Night. The SCA sponsored the night along with the foreign language department as a part of the Foreign Language week celebration which was held throughout the nation.

ON THE DOTTED LINE.... SCA sponsor Mr. Joe Schelzo talks to new Animal Protection Club member junior Jodie Scott about the SCA's point system. Representing the club at the SCA meeting, junior Jodie was getting information about signing up her club to help plant the Remembrance Tree for students who have passed away.

DINAH BLOW YOUR HORN. Junior Holly Hargreaves plays an African flute during the setup for Multicultural Night. As the chairman for this SCA event, she organized food preparations, decorations, and coordinated the project with the foreign language department.

SCANNING. Seniors Geralyn Trujillo, Ashley Crowley, Frank Miranda and Juniors Jen Snyder and Allison Saunders look over the SCA agenda before the February General Assembly meeting. These agendas were handed out so members knew what would be discussed at the meeting and what events were being discussed and/or sponsored by the SCA in the upcoming month.

"I always looked forward to those meetings--and getting out of class!"
-Dantea Gathers, senior

"The SCA allows me to be more active throughout the school and get everyone involved, which means a lot to me."
-Tara Neider, senior

"I'm glad Mo brought up Powder Puff Football at our SCA meeting because it gave me the chance to coach my class on my favorite subject--football!"
-Scott Ralph, junior

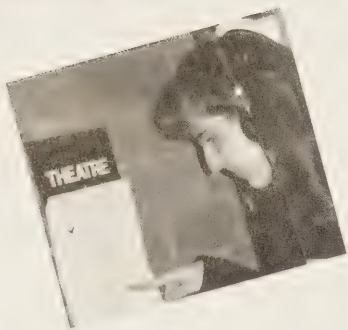

"SCA has given me great leadership skills that will... help me in the years ahead."
-Lane Majors, senior

PLAYERS THE SPIANS

...and everything in between.

"During Districts, Lauren McDermott and I were on headsets and were flipping through channels to find ours; we ended up on North Stafford's channel and we heard some pretty interesting things."

-Laura Downs, senior

"It is a great honor to be inducted into ITS because it is something that you earn on your own through hours and hours of work and dedication to theater."

-Wes Riffle, sophomore

"Players aren't only about acting. We also learn how to handle money (box office), stage manage and how to work with and handle people. I got to manage (music) shows at the Fine Arts Festival."

-Kyle McPherson, senior

"The greatest thing was Districts because everyone was supporting everyone else and there was this closeness like everyone was connected."

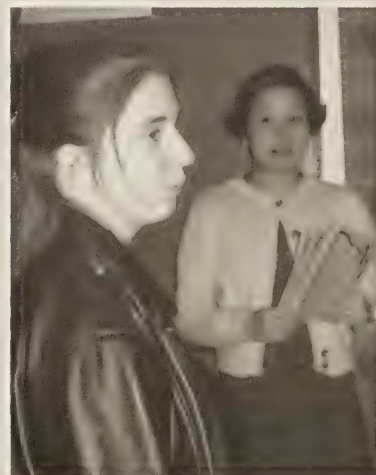

-Christianne Marsh, junior

STOP IN THE NAME OF AUDREY 2. Near the beginning of "Little Shop of Horrors," seniors Crystal Lundy and Joner Hall and sophomore Cherita Lundy introduce Audrey 2, the show's star plant. The comedic trio sang the musical's introduction and appeared regularly throughout the show.

"ENJOY THE SHOW." Promptly at 7:15 P.M. with programs in hand, freshman Jack Roke and junior Sayako Nakagawa stand at an entrance to the theater as ushers. Although shows did not begin until 7:30, tickets went on sale at 7:00 to accommodate the growing number of viewers of the Players' shows.

"The best part is when Mr. Vanderberg lets us wear ivy wreaths on our heads—but we have to beg him for that!"

--Diana Miller,
sophomore

"German Club is loads of fun. The Oktoberfest was the best. We have learned a lot about the German way of life and the Bavarian culture."

--Bree Dietrich,
sophomore

"I adore the French language, so it is a way outside of class that I can further my interest. It's good times, good times!"

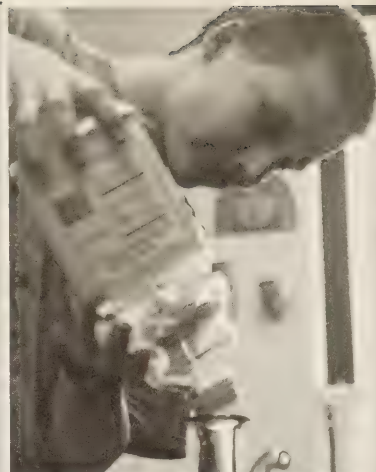

--Jennifer Moss,
junior

"It is fun being an officer in the Spanish Club, because you get to tell people what to do and you feel in control--yeah!"

--Patrick Carroll,
junior

WINE IN SCHOOL? Sophomore Keith James concentrates on trying not to spill a container of grape juice as he empties it into a Greek wine vase. The Latin Club always served the wine substitute at meetings because, in tradition, the Romans served wine at important meetings and social events.

A REAL SCAVENGER! Junior Brooke King opens a piece of candy after winning the treasure hunt Miss Christine O'Connor organized for the French Club. The members were given, in French, a list of things or places to find around school. Brooke received a picture frame and a box of candy for winning.

GERMAN CHOCOLATE CAKE? Sophomore Carla Henry digs into a piece of cake at a German Club meeting. Carla said she "enjoyed the meeting because there were always interesting things planned, and sometimes Ms. Urrichio would bring us snacks."

STUFF IT! Sophomores Kassia and Diana Miller make pinatas at an after school Spanish Club meeting. Kassia and Diana, along with the rest of the Spanish Club made pinatas, filled them with candy, painted them, and broke them in the traditional style--with a stick.

FATTUESDAY. Sophomore Wes Rifle and senior Michelle McConnell work on their masques for Mardi Gras during a French Club meeting. Wes and Melissa got together after school to celebrate the French carnival season.

The Spanish Club organizes a showing of Toy Story in Spanish. Members of the club bring friends and popcorn, and enjoy the show!

The Latin Club members meet for the VJCL (Virginia Junior Classical League) convention to interact with other students.

FLOWERS MAKE PRETTY. After school, on October 3rd, the day before the Homecoming parade, freshman Jackie Jackson adds decorations onto the Animal Protection Club's float. The float was hauled on a trailer behind senior Patrick McGiff's truck. It was decorated with Christmas lights powered through a donated generator.

TEAMWORK. FHA/HOSA members junior Susan Sifers and sophomore Jessica Moulton participate in an activity of Parachute. The objective was to move the ball toward the center and through the hole. This activity taught the importance of teamwork, ultimately in a family relationship.

December-January

Members held two fundraisers selling candy and singing telegrams.

April-May

Members donated money to the NHS scholarship for a graduating senior and the officers held inductions for new members.

MAHVELOUS! Junior Shannon Swartz feels the texture of a ceramic sculpture which has caught her attention at the VCU art building. Shanon was visiting the VCU campus as a prospective art student.

DO YOU SEE WHAT I SEE? Vice President Heather Meixler and President Elizabeth Usnick discuss plans for fundraiser in support of the National Art Honor Society scholarship for graduating seniors. The scholarship participant, chosen by the group and its sponsors, was given the award based upon merit in the arts and service to school and community.

ONE MORE TIME. After the third try, senior Kylie Cafiero pins a carnation on NHS President Susan Felhoelter before the society's fourth induction on Monday April 14. As the National Honor Society President, Susan was in charge of setting up and leading the induction ceremony.

CHECKIN' IN. Among the throng of people surrounding the sign in sheets at the NHS meeting, junior Rosie Rabon signs in and senior Brian Opaska asks her to sign him in as well. At their monthly meeting, members rushed to sign in and avoid waiting in long lines at the sign-in sheet!

1357985.... Senior Mike Keirstead reads the serial numbers off laser discs as library assistant Mrs. Pam Rabon enters them into the computer filing system. Mike and other members of the National Honor Society were given the opportunity to earn points over the summer by working for the school as it opened and prepared for the upcoming school year. To retain membership in the NHS, members demonstrated activism in the community by performing a variety of similar services.

"TSA is a fun experience that lets you think in more ways than one."
-Jeremiah Bagby, sophomore

"History Club gives you a great opportunity to learn about others' lives, and go on field trips."
-Heather Murray, junior

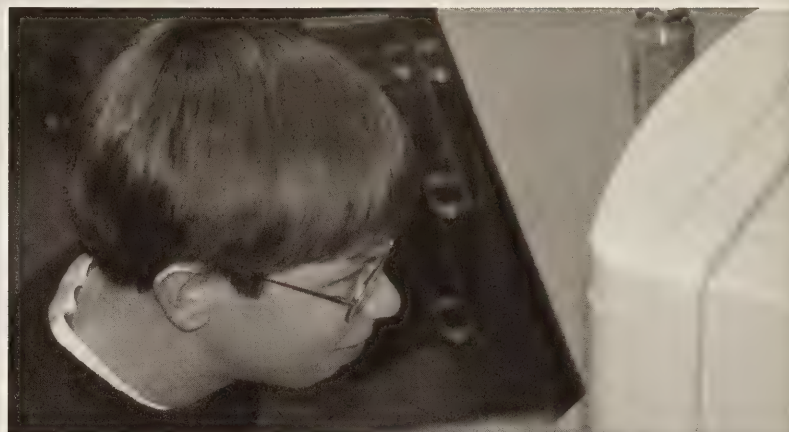

"In TSA, we get better acquainted with the world's recent technology; it's not just a workshop."
-Jake DeBerry, sophomore

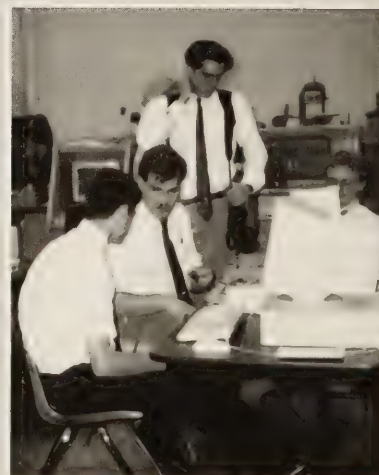

"Heath occupations prepares you for jobs in the medical field."
-Marika Solhan, junior

TAKING A TOUR. Junior Josh Silverman introduces foreign officers from Brazil and Taiwan to a history class. Josh, a member of the history club, was assigned two foreign officers and gave them a tour of the school

With her independent study in Marine Biology, junior Holly Hargreaves completed various projects both in and out of the classroom. Independent study was not only a course, but an invaluable experience which taught Holly more about "the real world" than any classroom ever could. She received information from 200-300 marine science organizations from around the world and she got to go on field trips such as The Virginia Marine Science Museum in Virginia Beach where the Marine Biology class went to collect samples on a boat in the Atlantic Ocean. She also talked to the founders of the Dolphin Keyboarding Communication Project at The Living Seas in Walt Disney World. Holly gave a presentation on dolphins to elementary students at Stafford Elementary School. Holly received the Terry Renner Scholarship, a 2,000 dollar scholarship to travel to the Florida Keys "owning" and training her own dolphin for the week. She was the only student in the United States to receive the scholarship!

Ms. Nikki Neveras guided her Journalism I students as they created their first edition of the HAWKEYE. Once the class mastered layout techniques such as inverted pyramids, developing headers, and avoiding gutters, they were ready to write editorials and compete for article assignments. Newspaper hats made by the class served as hall passes as they rushed to collect information and meet deadlines. Spending time after school and keeping the press hot, the Journalism I class helped the upper level journalism students publish three editions of the HAWKEYE. The class took a field trip to the Washington Post printing office in D.C. to witness the "action." The picture, to the left, was taken the day of the trip. In March, the class created, on their own, an entire edition of the HAWKEYE, and, with students serving as editors, reporters and photographers, the class learned that hard work and dedication pays off in the end.

Despite the flu outbreak during the December auditions for the All-District Band, the band played on. Students could not tryout due to illness, but those who did came out on top. Of all the Stafford County students who made the district band, 60 percent came from here. During auditions, students were required to play scales, play a prepared piece, and sight read a piece. Senior Jondra Harmon, at left, said, "Auditions at district band prepare you by giving audition experience to help in the future." Jondra has made the district band four years in a row. She plans to major in music next year at Gardner-Webb University. Sophomore percussionist Chris Allen, at right, made 4th chair overall out of 48 percussionists who auditioned. About Chris' accomplishment, band director Mr. Casey Olney said, "It's very promising for a sophomore."

DON'T FALL. Junior Kelly Cassidy and sophomore Julie Millerson laugh about their skating adventures at Rockerfeller Center. Kelly and Julie had slipped on a nick in the ice, causing their heads to collide. Four yearbook students went skating while others watched from above. The girls had "such a good time skating with new friends," that they closed the rink at midnight.

DOUBLE TAKE. Sophomore Christine Kalil takes a second look at the toy soldier doorman as she enters FAD Schwartz in New York City. Some yearbook staff purchases included Hello Kitty wallets, paper airplanes, Glow Gertie, and a magic kit. The highlight of the trip was seeing movie star Martin Short inside the famous toy store.

COVER GIRL! Sophomore Julie Allen gets a makeover from Robin at Frederique Fekkai salon in New York. Everyone received a free make-over from the salon. While waiting for the appointments, the girls were served complimentary beverages and were able to meet stylist Frederique Fekkai. Cindy Crawford, and Christy Brinkley are both clients of the salon!

I SEE YOU! After touring the Virginia Fine Arts Museum in Richmond, junior Christie Schoenrock looks through a bronze sculpture sitting outside the museum. NAHS members toured the VCU Art Department and later visited this museum on March 6.

ADD EM' UP. Juniors Jennifer Moss, Heather Meixler, and Brooke King carefully add up their scores after a scavenger hunt for the French Club. They had to read clues that were written in French to find the answers to questions about the school such as, "How many doors are there to the gym?"

SHOW ME THE WAY. Junior Heather Murray escorts a foreign officer from Taiwan to Mrs. VanValzah's classroom where he spoke to the class about communism in his country. The members of the History Club escorted the foreign officers to their classrooms, and they had lunch with them afterwards

OFF TO STATES WE GO! After the announcement of their second place finish at the Regional Theatre Festival at Hylton High School on February 15, sophomore Adam Downs, senior Adele Rodler and junior Scott Shockey applaud their feat. This accomplishment qualified them to advance to the state competition in Richmond in March.

On October 11, the Learn and Serve volunteer class ventured to Washington, D.C. to help at the AIDS Quilt. 40,000 panels, 70,000 names, 10,000 volunteers, 1.2 million visitors... and these students were a small part of it! To the right, seniors Brittany Robertson, Tara Nieder, and Kylie Cafiero examine water bottles given to them at the quilt. Learn and Serve students volunteered by giving tours, handing out pamphlets, and answering questions. The students got to see Vice President Al and wife Tipper Gore. They also got to meet Ryan White's mother. Ryan, a teenager, died of AIDS after contracting HIV from a blood transfusion. The day was filled with emotion and activity. Senior Kate Wierchert said, "This was a great experience, and one I will never forget."

Seniors take Dual Enrollment classes to get one step ahead on their college education. Dual Enrollment classes count for both high school and college credit. Students taking a dual enrollment class also receive a weighted grade. Dual enrollment courses are offered in English and Biology. At left, senior Kate Wierchert works on a 10 page research paper due for her Dual Enrollment English class. Kate says she takes the class because "[i]t is easier than A.P. or Honors, and you get a weighted grade!" In the Dual Biology classes, the students are required to dissect a cat. The Biology classes work on dissecting cats and, in the process, they learn about the organs, systems, and parts of mammals which are similar to ours. Senior Emily Ratzel says she takes Dual Enrollment Biology because "...you get a college credit."

ties, announcing messages over the PA system for teachers still at work after school. Attendance Secretary Mrs. Julie Cooper says, "I enjoy working after school because I am able to get more work done in the quiet without all the interruptions." Mr. James Stemple, at right, stays after school to read the mail left in his mailbox during the day. Other faculty members stayed after to catch up on work. "Without staying after school, the yearbook would never be finished" said Mrs. Lynn Miller, the yearbook sponsor. Students are also grateful for teachers' extra time. Sophomore Brandi Sims said, "Staying after school for help gives me some one-on-one time with my teacher." After-hours work benefits teachers, their students, and the school alike!

CHEESIN'! The yearbook staff takes time out for a group photo. At camp, the staff learned to listen to each other, work together, and torment Mr. Spence. Being the only male at camp, Mr. Spence became the victim of many pranks. These included locking him in his room, stealing his hat and just generally annoying him.

CAN SOMEBODY HELP ME? Junior Kelly Cassidy asks sponsor Mrs. Lynn Miller to approve her layout design as senior Amber Bowling works on theme ideas for the book. At camp, the staff piled into one room and collaborated on ideas, seeking to develop the theme "Seeing it Through" in a four hour brainstorming session.

SITTIN' PRETTY. Waiting for their seminar to start, juniors Megan Tetrault, Kim Brenner, and Dionna Norman sit in their seats at Liberty High School during the Fall Regional FBLA Conference. Other FBLA members junior Joseph Walker and senior Thomas Liddiard (not shown), did not "particularly enjoy the seminar that was given by a Mary Kaye consultant."

FREEZE! During a dress rehearsal for Little Shop of Horrors, cast members "freeze" as the action is shifted to other characters on stage. Little Shop of Horrors was a "terrifying musical" by Howard Ashman and Alan Menker. Junior Colleen Leavel could only describe it was "wonderfully horrific!"

PARTY TIME! At the February French Club meeting, sponsor Ms. Christine O'Connor looks at Heather Meixler's Mardi Gras mask as sophomore Wes Riffe continues to work on his. Students who did not make masks chose to play Scategories in French.

LOOK! FOUR HEADS! Freshman Eric Braxton and junior Steve Borey study the four-headed Mahachakra Vajrapaniti Consortium at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts. The NAHS left school by charter bus at 8:30 AM, spent the day at the museum, and arrived back at school at 3:30 PM.

Do you ever notice how the school always seems so clean and tidy during first period class and by seventh period it is so trashed? Do you ever stop to think who exactly has to pick up that candy wrapper that just happened to fall out of your hand? The chances are, you don't. You just come to school, do your work, and leave as soon as the bell rings. The custodians are always hard at work, cleaning for yet another school day. Between 7:30 a.m. and 10:30 p.m., you will always find Judy, pictured below, Penette, Elmo, Dorris, James, Leonard, or Wayne scrubbing or sweeping, dusting or polishing. Although cleaning the school is a neverending and difficult job, the custodians like their work. Penette Upshaw has worked as a custodian in schools for years and likes it. "It's not a bad job," said Penette. "The others are great to work with and are always ready to lend a hand when I need help."

"Comparison and Contrast of Stage and Film From an Actors' Point-of-View," was the title of Erin Cahill's third period class. Erin chose to pursue an Independent Study course as an elective, seeking the opportunity to research an area of personal interest. As an aspiring actor, Erin used this class to expand her knowledge of "stage and film, and her abilities in performance." While building knowledge, Erin has interviewed other actors and experts in the field of stage and film production. She also attended theatrical productions, studied lighting, staging, and acting technique. Erin, at left, presented her findings to her theatrical counterparts at school. One major accomplishment during the course of this Study was Erin's participation in the stage and film production of "The Visit," put on by Winning Image. While the play was put on at school, it was a professional production!

In April, the English department hosted three visitors from London who did theatrical interpretations of literary characters. This helped students identify with the characters about who they were reading. In Mrs. Rutherford's Honors classes, students formed into groups and created charts depicting the mindset of their chosen character from Hamlet. When this was completed, education consultant Derek Brown had a representative from each group come forward and act as if s/he was the actual character. Senior Brandon Carr, at left, answered questions about Guildenstern, a Shakespearean character. Another approach taken to understanding the characters was through costume make-up. Senior Nathan Ludwig said, "Doing the activities helped me understand Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are Dead in a fun and interesting way."

OKAY, NOW YOU PULL! Juniors James Moore and David Burke attempt to remove the brace from the muffler. As students enrolled in Auto Mechanics, their grade depended on their skill and work effort. At times, it helped to work with another student, putting your minds together to get a solution.

YOUNG SHERLOCK HOLMES. Junior DJ Davis looks into the depths of the engine in search of a wire, hoping to find the cause of an electrical power shortage. Part of the problem with finding the solution to engine problems was gaining access to, and understanding, the many different wires and parts inside a car's engine.

I'LL SPOT YA'! No, they're not weightlifting. Seniors Frank Mirando, Greg Strotman, Nathan Crumb, and Andrew Taylor inspect the undercarriage of a vehicle. They were checking the axels and muffler for stability and safety. To look at a car's underbody, they hoisted the car on a lift so that they could gain access.

SAY AH! Junior Shawn Grazier amuses Brent and Chelsea Barton by allowing them to crawl inside the Audre II plant in the parking lot of Le Petit Fleur. This was part of a promotion to encourage people to buy tickets ahead of time for Little Shop of Horrors. Everyone who bought their ticket ahead of time received a free rose with their ticket.

HOW IT'S DONE. During the monthly NHS meeting in April, Vice President, Senior Keith Davidson explains to new members what to do with their point declarations. To Maintain good standing in this club, all members were required to have a minimum grade point average of 3.5 in addition to the earning of five points per semester; Points were earned through performing community service.

We're Making Sure There Is Life After High School.

Every year, Nationwide agents go back to high school to get students involved in the Nationwide Insurance Prom Promise, a program that gives kids a chance to commit to a life free from alcohol and other drugs, especially on Prom Night.

Which means we're able to provide high school students with valuable information about alcohol and other drugs, the kind of information they need to make healthy decisions.

We're proud of every student who makes the Prom Promise pledge, and proud of the schools and communities that show enough support to make such a program possible.

To our sunshine,

Happiness is having watched a little girl grow into a lovely, talented and caring young woman. You have completed this challenge and we are indeed proud of your success and accomplishments. Unfortunately, our happiness will too soon be replaced by a void. You will be off to college facing new challenges. The evening meals and family expeditions will miss that cheerful voice, witty charm and smile.

So pursue your dreams, your only limits will be those that you have set. Our prayers will be with you and your faith will guide you.

Love,

To the reader:

First of all we thank you for buying this "little" book. Out of creativity, dedication, and frustration something just wonderful developed. Please overlook our mistakes and remember, no other group of 16 students could make a 248 page book! We sacrificed sleep, General Hospital, and our sanity. And of the three times we have done the yearbook, we really feel this is the best one. We have enjoyed being so involved for three years, and when we think back we'll definitely remember our experiences on staff. We put our blood, sweat, and tears into this--hope you enjoy it!

To the staff:

To our little sugarplums! We thank you for your undying dedication (Rosie, you didn't have to break your nose)! Every one of you truly saw this thing through to the end. We will never forget being in lockdown with you--that was a night to remember. But "you do what you got to do." We wish you luck next year. And to our faithful sponsors: sorry for all of your headaches, sleep deprivation, and we hope your families take you back. We will always remember all of you. Think of us often!

*We love you guys,
Carrie, Amber, Kylie, & Kelly*

The 1997 Spectator, printed by Jostens Publishing

Company's Commercial Printing Plant in Winston Salem, North Carolina, submitted the book on disk for the fourth year. Using not-so state of the art computer equipment, the yearbook staff produced the book under the direction of Lynn Miller and Aaron Spence. Using IBM diskettes, the 1997 Spectator Staff learned Pagemaker 5.0 and Quattro Pro 6.0, as well as Yeartech on 4 computers. The Yearbook Staff used 3 386 Gateway 2000's, and an AST Pentium 133 Mega Hertz and a Hewlett Packard Laser Jet 4 Printer.

The book was printed on 80 pound matte and gloss paper. Estimated cost of the June delivery book was $34,000.

The 1997 Spectator Staff sold $4,100 worth of ads which were individually designed. Ads sold from $30 to $200 depending on size. The book sold for $35 dollars through Valentine's day. The price increased to $50 February 15.

Lifetouch took the senior portraits and sports pictures. Senior portraits were shot during the summer and in September as well as in October and November.

The yearbook staff chose a leather embossed cover in school colors highlighting the Black-Hawk pride. Colors and fonts used on the cover were used in the sections of the book to further tie the theme together. The cover was originally designed during a workshop held at Hollins College in June.

The copy used throughout the book was adjusted with auto leading. The different lead-ins and placement of certain captions in grids were decided upon by the section editors.

We would like to thank Jay Hollis for taking us on our exciting trip through Manhattan. We would also like to thank PhotoArt for developing all of our last minute deadline film in an hour. We would especially like to thank our good friend Judy for doing a great job in cleaning our pig sty. We would like to thank all the coaches who helped us in getting scoreboards. We would especially like to thank Joanne Ralph for giving us the sport schedules for all the teams and taking time to help name all of the athletes in sports pictures. Also, we would like to thank Jeff for putting a paper towel dispenser in the dark room! Thank you Mrs. Milleson for buying us pizza all of those late nights at school. Also, thanks to Pops (Mr. Papajohn) for buying out Giant for us so we could have plenty to eat and drink while staying up all night. Thanks to all our parents for their support. Special thanks go to Mrs. Tillery, our "Yes-Man," for supporting us throughout the year. Mrs. Parish, we would like to thank you for giving us all of our needed supplies, parent newsletters, the phone number to Hunan Chef, a change of clothes for Mrs. Miller on the night of our "slumber" party, and for taking good care of us all year. A big thanks goes to Mrs. Lynn Miller and Mr. Aaron Spence for taking many of their free nights to stay here with us until 8 and 9 o'clock at night and a huge thanks for that fun all-nighter we pulled to finish our very last deadline. We're gonna miss you next year.

The Spectator is a member of the VHSL and has won three previous first place awards. All three books were published by Jostens at their Hunter plant under the direction of John Fletcher, represented by Jay Hollis. We would like to thank the people at the plant for their countless hours dedicated to the precise publication of this book and the VHSL for providing guidelines and instructions for continued success.

We Left Our Mark

This was a time to make our own decisions and to decide who we were going to be. It was a time to decide how people would remember us and what we were about to leave behind. Along the way there were people who influenced our lives.

We established who we were—with a little help. Our parents, teachers, and community led us toward the right paths for our future. Each one of us will take a different road, and we will choose that road with the guidance of others. We will come to understand what we do and what we accomplish. Through the dedication of coaches and sponsors, we achieved the goals we set through the year. The faculty and staff of Brooke Point have helped develop the mind of each and every student. Whether it be through teaching the concepts of Algebra or helping students publish a book, they greatly influenced each of our lives.

This book is dedicated to such a person—Bob Epps. Whether he was there to maintain the peace or lend his ear, he was someone we all depended on. Mr. Epps was respected and looked up to; he became our friend over the years. He watched the class of 1997 grow, from their youthful days at Stafford Middle School to their time spent here at Brooke Point; he followed the class from middle school to graduation. As the class of 1997 graduates, Mr. Epps will retire, saying good-bye to his days in education. Mr. Epps, we thank you for SEEING IT THROUGH with us.

MOVIN' ON OUT! Mr. Bob Epps directs traffic as the students leave the junior/sophomore parking lot. One of his duties was to see that the traffic ran smoothly in the morning and afternoon.

GOOD MORNING! Waving to old friend senior Amber Bowling, Mr. Bob Epps reminds her, as he did for all students every morning, that the bell will ring in "4.5 seconds." Amber has known Mr. Epps since he started working in the middle school, seven years ago.

FIRST IN FULL FLIGHT! After the senior class picture, students shout and cheer, knowing that graduation is not far away. The class theme "First in Full Flight," reflected the knowledge that the senior class had been the first to attend the school for a full four years.
